07-03-18 FINANCIAL REPORT

Financial report Noted

Agenda Item 10.4 brought forward

10-03-18.4 - NORTH LEGACY WORKING GROUP

JM reported that the North Legacy working group had met on the 1st March 2018 and discussed the Aim, Requirements and Conditions to be proposed at Full Council for the North Legacy Fund.

- Aim Benefit the children of Sherston PC
- Requirements Provide a Lasting Legacy
- Conditions To fund Capital Projects and NOT Revenue Projects

The Aim, Requirements and Conditions were discussed and Resolved by All to form the structure and enable the decision process for any applications received.

The clerk advised that a draft Donation and Grant Policy had been circulated with the view to implementing a structured process going forward, it was Resolved that the Policy would be reviewed and added to the April Agenda for adoption.

JM reported that emails had been received from Scouts and the Preschool asking to be considered for North Legacy funding.

JM advised that a written request had been received requesting funding of £50,000.00 for Teaching Assistant support for children in need of extra help at Sherston School , the written request had been reviewed at the working group. Following a formal discussion it was Resolved and Agreed by All that applications for the fund must be for capital projects and not revenue projects to ensure a lasting legacy for any investment, as a result of this the application for Sherston School did not meet the requirements of the Legacy Fund due to the Revenue aspect of the request and was therefore declined.

08-03-18 - PLAY PARK - RECREATIONAL GROUND
