

Act II: The scene continues, the final curtain beckons

Act II, the pop-up charity shop raising money for the village hall improvements, has had a terrific run.

Although I have fronted this second shop, the help I have received has been phenomenal; the names backstage are too many to list. I also could not have done it without the wonderful support of donors whose generosity has been amazing.

We have been given so many lovely things, from a beautiful gold necklace to some great pieces of furniture – and much more in between! It has been all these goodies that at the time of writing (the middle of August) have brought the total reached so far to a staggering £3,500.

There have been lots of stories – some pluses and minuses. After all, who would have thought that an electric kettle could have a price tag of £195? Someone really got a bargain there! An 18-carat marked gold ring, however, proved to be a Romanian fake – if you are offered one in lieu of kind services given to a stranger, beware, apparently there are plenty on the market!

A rare Vanity Fair print kindly donated was intriguing; my telephone call from a worldwide authority in Phoenix Arizona was quite exciting. Unfortunately, however, condition was against a whopping price but the expert very kindly sent me a detailed email on its value.

What an amazing community we have in Sherston – from posters designed, printed and kindly donated to muscle power, kindness and tolerance in abundance. We head towards the final act and the curtain falling. Perhaps my husband will now be fed, not that he needs it!

A very big thank you from me and our lovely village hall.

A cricketing tribute to Neil Forster: Saturday 24 September

It was with great sadness that Sherston Magna Cricket Club said goodbye to its president in early 2016. The club has been looking for an appropriate way to honour his memory.

The club has decided to create the Neil Forster Memorial Trophy, which will hopefully bring together some of the philosophies that Neil brought to the club. The club will be holding the inaugural Sherston Magna Single Wicket Competition for the trophy on Saturday 24 September. The day will also include the Junior Cricket presentation and a kwik cricket competition, bringing together the senior and junior sections of the club at the end of the season which truly sums up the great man!

The event will start at 11.00am with the unveiling of a memorial bench paying respect to the recent loss of a couple of loyal club supporters, with the presentation of Neil Forster Memorial Trophy at 4.00pm.

For the single wicket, you enter as an individual (entry is free), and the format of the competition will be a series of one over matches where players bowl at each other and the winner is the one who scores most off the others over! Entries to cricket@sherstonmagnacc.co.uk to guarantee your slot as places may be limited. For the junior kwik cricket competition details will be distributed through the usual channels.

There will be a bar and a BBQ (weather permitting) so why not come along, support and pay tribute to a true gentleman of Sherston.

Sherston Ladies Swimming Club

Sherston Ladies Swimming Club currently has a few spaces so please get in touch if you would like to join. We swim at the lovely pool at Westonbirt Leisure Centre, every Wednesday evening 8.00pm-9.00pm. There is a lane for faster, more serious swimmers but plenty of space for those who want to go at their own pace.

The club is non-competitive, friendly and welcoming so if you want to have regular exercise to get fit and stay healthy do get in touch. The cost is currently £40 for 10 weeks. Please call Heather (840375), Annabel (840592) or Maggie (840969).

Copy deadline: 10th of the previous month.
Send to editorial@sherstoncliffhanger.co.uk or hard copy to Sherston Post Office Stores.

What's On: contact Caroline Moore on 841405 or info@sherstoncliffhanger.co.uk

The size and content of the Cliffhanger depends entirely on the amount of copy we receive from individuals and groups. So, if you feel you have something of interest, please don't hesitate to tell us. Around 400 words would be a maximum but the shorter the better and less editing would be needed.

Top tip: if you're telling us of an event coming up, write a short piece about it rather than just supply basic details or a poster. You will then get a short article published to help boost interest as well as a mention in our What's On section. Don't forget to tell us how your event went, with a photo if possible.

Friends of Tolsey Surgery

The Tolsey Surgery has recently been evaluated by the Care Quality Commission (CQC). The overall assessment was 'Good', which is very encouraging. The main problem with the surgery is that, due to limited space, it cannot offer the comprehensive range of facilities offered by larger practices. This can mainly be improved by the provision of a new and bigger surgery providing a more widespread range of primary care facilities. All this is currently being addressed by the surgery, the Parish Council, Wiltshire County Council and the Sherston committee looking at the future developments required by the village, progress will be reported as it happens.

As well as inspecting the surgery, the CQC also looked at the effectiveness of the Friends of Tolsey Surgery (FOTS). The main function of which is to act as a liaison between the patients and the surgery staff. The CQC was impressed by the role they performed in making the surgery more patient friendly. Its only criticism was that the FOTS committee is predominantly made up of retired people, and there is therefore little input from younger patients. If you would like to become involved with the surgery at this exciting time when hopefully there will be many changes created by the provision of a new surgery, and especially if you can reduce the average age of the committee, please contact the chairman, Tony Towle, on either 840574 or atowle@btinternet.com or complete a contact form at the surgery.

WE WILL REMEMBER THEM

Private 50860
John Robert Gilbert Neale

2nd Batt Welsh Regiment

Died Friday 8 September 1916

Remembered with Honour,
Thiepval Memorial to the Missing, Somme, France

In another brave attempt to take the German stronghold of High Wood, the 2nd Welsh Regiment made a joint attack with the 1st Gloucestershires on 8 September 1916.

The Germans had abandoned High Wood on 15 July following the British attack on the Bazentin villages early in the morning. But the British were too slow to make good their gains and the Germans were able to return and fortify the wood.

High Wood did not fall until the middle of September 1916, by which time tens of thousands of British had fallen in front and within its confines in the many attempts to take it.

The 15 July attack had included the first use of tanks in warfare, although their contribution was limited.

Little remained of the wood after its capture. It has since regrown and forms a private estate.

It is estimated that thousands of bodies lay undiscovered in the wood. Consequently John Neale's name is inscribed on the Thiepval Memorial to the Missing.

The bells of Holy Cross Church will be rung at 11.45am on 8 September.

Tracklements Seeks Crabapples for Charity

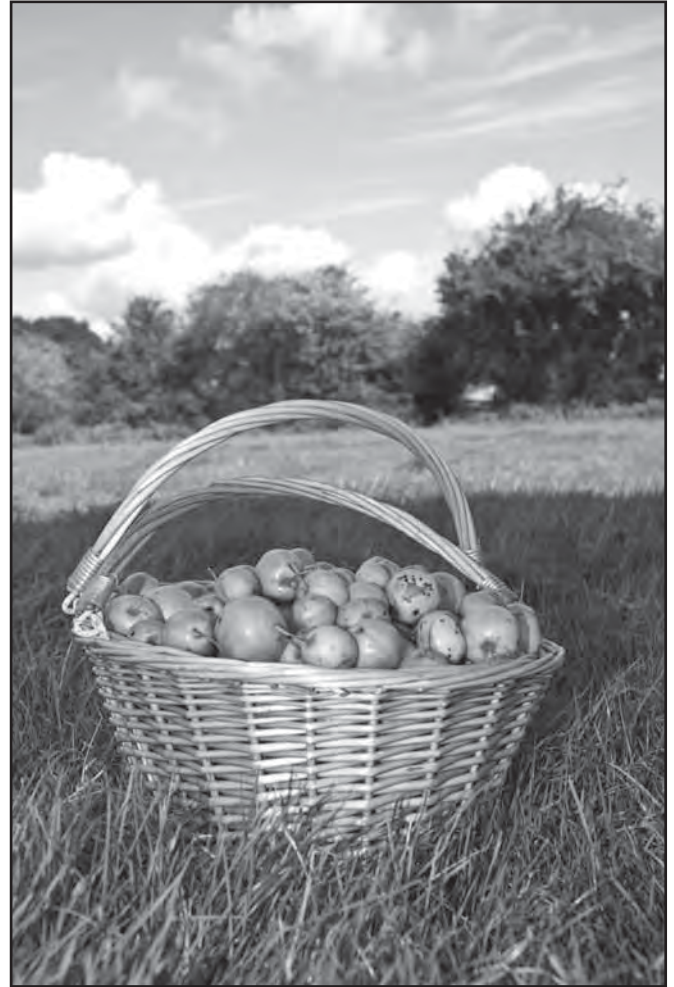

Malmesbury-based condiment maker, Tracklements, is once again appealing to the local community to put on their wellies, take a walk in the countryside and start collecting crabapples for a terrific cause!

For over 10 years, Tracklements has partnered up with Sherston Primary School to collect crabapples which Tracklements then turns into English Crabapple Jelly to raise money for charity. Alongside making delicious jelly, the Crabapple Project is also a great way to teach the schoolchildren about the provenance of their food by showing them the process from tree to jar, as well as using up fruit that may otherwise go to waste.

For every kilogram of crabapples collected, 50p will go directly to the school and for every jar of English Crabapple Jelly sold nationwide throughout the year, 25p will be given to the school to donate to a charity of their choice. Last year's collection and sale of English Crabapple Jelly raised over £500!

Crabapples are 'wild' apples and are the source of all domestic apples grown today, such as the ones you buy in the supermarket. They can often be found in British hedgerows, nestled amongst other trees. So, why not pick a few on your weekend walk?

If you have any crabapples you won't be using and would like to support the local school, Tracklements would love them. All you need to do is drop them off at Tracklements, Whitewalls, Easton Grey, SN16 0RD (827044, open 9.00am-5.00pm Monday-Friday) until Friday 21 October. For more information, visit www.tracklements.co.uk.

Parish Steward – What needs doing?

Our new parish steward starts in October and will be looking after the village. The parish steward will carry out the following work:

- Hand cleaning of small grips (ditches).
- Rodding of small culverts and manholes.
- Hand cleaning of road gully tops.
- Hedge trimming around road signs to maintain visibility, but not wholesale hedge-cutting as this needs to be done by landowner.
- Washing Highway signs.
- Over-run damage.
- Strimming of grass verges for visibility at junctions and of Highway signs.
- Siding out overgrown vegetation obstructing footways.
- Clearing debris and leaves, but not litter.
- Painting railings, away from water.

The parish steward will be managed by the parish council so if you notice that any of the tasks above need doing around Sherston, please contact the clerk, Sarah Wood, on 840197 or email clerk@sherston.org.uk so that these tasks can be added to the job list.

Pantomime coming up!

SHERSTON DRAMA GROUP

By the time you read this, Sherston Drama Group's latest pantomime will be in rehearsal. This year we visit the legendary land of King Arthur to perform Ben Crocker's Camelot the Panto.

Arthur is still a young prince, but very much in love with the beautiful Guinevere whom he wants to marry. Guinevere herself has some doubts, however, and the villainous Morgan Le Fay definitely has other ideas. Merlin's powers are fading, so who can rescue Guinevere from the clutches of Morgan's protégé Valerin the Vicious? You will have to wait until October to find out, so please note the dates in your diary: Wednesday 26 to Saturday 29 October in Sherston Village Hall, at 7.30pm with a Saturday matinée at 2.30pm. Tickets will be on sale from the beginning of October from Sherston Post Office Stores, or the Box Office via 840092.

Cotswolds Landscape Photographer of the Year 2016

Calling all amateur photographers! Get out your cameras and enter our new 'Cotswolds Landscape Photographer of the Year 2016' competition – you could win some great prizes.

As part of ongoing celebrations to mark the 50th anniversary of the Cotswolds Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB), we are looking for the most captivating local landscape images. All pictures must feature a landscape within the AONB, but apart from that there are no boundaries to your creativity.

Iconic landscapes viewed under blue or stormy skies; an unusual angle on well-known countryside or a favourite vista known just to you – what will make you 'Cotswolds Landscape Photographer of the Year 2016'?

The competition is open to amateurs of all ages and we've three superb prizes:

As sponsor of the competition, award-winning boutique hotel Dormy House on the Farncombe Estate is offering a first prize of an overnight stay for two, to include dinner in the potting shed, use of Dormy House spa and full English breakfast.

Winner of the second prize will enjoy an overnight bed & breakfast stay for two in a Cosy Luxe room at The Fish Hotel, the back-to-nature bolthole also on the Farncombe Estate.

Winner of the third prize receives a place on a one-day Image Seen Cotswolds landscape photography group workshop with Cotswolds-based landscape photographer Sarah Howard. Or, if they choose, the winner gets a voucher to the value of £140 to use on another group workshop taking place around the country.

To be in with a chance to win, simply submit up to two digital images by 11 December. Winners are announced mid-December – the perfect Christmas present!

For more information about the competition and details on how to enter, go to: www.cotswoldsaonb.org.uk/photography

Sherston Senior Club

Members and visitors were entertained by singing group End of the Track at the Boules Tea Afternoon, after which a delightful tea was served by the committee

At our next meeting, Cilla Liddington told us of some of the history of Sherston. We were amazed that at one time there were 15 public houses in Sherston. Cilla's talk was fascinating and she was very interested when members told her of their experiences.

When you read this we will have been on our outing to Tredegar House and gardens on 9 August and Michael Rumsey will have shown slides and spoken about the railways on 23 August.

Looking forward

Tuesday 6 September: A mystery tour leaving the Carpenters Arms at 1.30pm and High Street at 1.40pm. Cost: £10.00 members, £12.00 non-members.

Tuesday 20 September: Harvest Auction.

Visitors are always welcome to the meetings or the outings. Please contact Pearl Dyer 840619 to reserve a place.

The Wiltshire Donkey Show

The Wiltshire Donkey Show on Sunday 4 September is an event for all donkey fans.

The main show is affiliated to the Donkey Breed Society (DBS) with formal in-hand and driving classes and less formal fancy hat, long reining and dressage classes, the schedule offers something for everyone.

There is an entry charge of £2.50 per adult, children are free. This entitles you to a possible lucky programme. Dogs are welcome but must be kept on a lead at all times and please clean up after your dog. Hot drinks and light refreshments will be available for purchase on the day. Venue: Scot Smith's farmyard, Dauntsey (SN15 4JA).

Tolsey News

Dispensary News

Further to the changes announced last month, we are now pleased to advise that we have a new Dispensary Manager, Tracy Ann McAsey working with us for the next few months. It will not now be necessary to close the dispensary for longer during the day, and the opening hours will remain the same as before. You may notice some other changes in the routines of the dispensary, but these will all be in order to provide a more efficient service to our patients. It will also help us to reduce the amount of wasted medication routinely given out. We are being monitored on the volume of medication dispensed and the volume returned unused.

With the new automated system we have implemented, patients will be able to pick up their prescription and re-order their medication for the following month at the same time, which reduces the number of visits to the surgery and ensures medication is ready for collection at the appropriate time. You will still have the same access to the surgery, either in person or online, but the phones must not be used to order any medication. You will of course be able to speak to dispensary staff with any queries about your prescriptions.

If you have a pre-payment certification, please ensure that you bring it in to show to the staff so details can be put on the system. If the box is ticked to say that you have a certificate, without a valid certificate you are liable to receive a fine from the prescription pricing authority of up to £100.

Migraine Awareness Week: 4-10 September

Recognised by the WHO (World Health Organization) as a disabling lifetime condition and affecting more than eight million people in the UK – more than diabetes, epilepsy and asthma combined – migraines are complex in nature and complex to treat.

Treatments range from acute to preventative medication, Botox injections, diet elimination and supplements, as well as new treatments such as magnets and electrical stimulation. Chiropractic can also help with certain types of migraine leading to fewer attacks and less medication needed, with more than 72% in a US study reporting noticeable or substantial improvement (these were patients who had suffered for 18 years on average).

To support Migraine Awareness Week, if you book in to receive chiropractic treatment for migraines in the month of September, your first appointment will be half price. Call 841402 or email emma@mctimoneychiro.co.uk to book in.

INSPIRING WOMEN

Our visiting speaker for the August meeting was David Lemon who talked to us about 'Walking The Zambezi'.

David who, by his own admission, is in his senior years has the incredible distinction of being the only person to have ever walked the entire length of the Zambezi River from its unspectacular source in northwest Zambia to the Indian Ocean – a journey of approximately 3,000km. David's talk was informative and amusing, even though his journey was an arduous one which left him suffering from malnutrition and dehydration and he was forced to return to the UK to recover, where he took the opportunity to write about the first half of his journey. Such was his determination to complete the journey that he returned to where he had previously finished and carried on walking. The second half of his walk took him through the most difficult gorge on the Zambezi on the trail that Livingstone once took. Again he was beset by illness, including malaria, but he did finally make it to the Indian Ocean. The people he met along the way who helped him, with no thought of gain, and the sights and wildlife he saw made for a wonderful story and David is now writing about the second part of his adventure before thinking about where to go next.

Our next meeting is on Thursday 1 September when Ellie Dickins will be talking about 'The Relationship between Feet and Shoes'.

Visitors to our meetings are always most welcome (£3.50)

On 6 October at 8.00pm everyone is welcome to hear a talk by Jess McKillop of Aardman Animations about the making of Wallace and Gromit and other award-winning animated films. Tickets on sale soon at £7.50 to include refreshments.

Dial 105 to report a power cut

On 6 September a new national phone number '105' will be launched by electricity network operators for customers to call should they need to report a power cut or problem.

In the past, each of the UK's electricity network companies has had their own number for customers to use. Now this new number can be used anywhere in the UK and will put callers through to the local electricity network operator – Scottish and Southern Energy Power Distribution (SSEPD) in Sherston.

By dialling 105, customers will be put through to SSEPD which look after the cables, power lines and substations that deliver electricity into homes and businesses in Sherston.

105 is just one of the ways that customers can contact SSEPD. They can also SSEPD by phone or via the SSEPD website, and most network operators are on social media too.

105 is a free service for people in England, Scotland and Wales.

Customers can call 105 no matter which company they choose to buy electricity from.

Customers can also call 105 if they spot damage to electricity power lines and substations that could put anyone in danger. If there's a serious immediate risk, they should call the emergency services too.

See the back page for details on how to contact SSEPD.

Charming House to rent in historic Southern France

16 Rue Montmorency is a charming three-bedroom town house located in the heart of Pezenas, a beautiful medieval market town. The house can accommodate 6 people comfortably and was built in the 18th Century. Constructed from ancient stone (probably from the neighbouring castle ruins!) it comes complete with authentic touches such as decorative wrought iron railings and sky blue wooden shutters which are a decorative theme running through Pezenas.

Light and airy with stunning views

Number 16 is situated on the apex of a row of town houses, and so has light on three sides as well as a roof terrace with stunning views over the old town and Languedoc countryside. Rue Montmorency is a stone's throw from the bars and bistros of the vibrant old town.

Sherston Market

The next market is on Saturday 10 September at Sherston Village Hall from 10.00am to 2.00pm.

The café will be serving up some enticing and delicious food to tempt you – either to eat in or to take away – including our sought-after bacon butties and healthy fruit smoothies. Vegetarian curry and hot soup will also be back on the menu.

At all markets at least one free stall is offered for a charity or voluntary group to raise funds. Anyone interested in running such a stall should please use the contacts below. All these stalls have done well to date, so don't be shy in booking one!

For those on Facebook, there is an active Sherston Market page with lots of information about our stallholders and their products. Please also visit our new website www.sherstonmarket.co.uk which lists details of which stallholders are attending the next market.

If you are a local maker, baker, grower or producer and are interested in taking a stall, please get in touch using the contact form on the website, phoning 07887 814843 / 07769 613627 or emailing info@awkwardsquad.co.uk.

BIOLAGE

Is it a bird, a plane or creative lighting?

Members of Tetbury Camera Club will have an active autumn programme to look forward to when the club launches its winter season on 6 September.

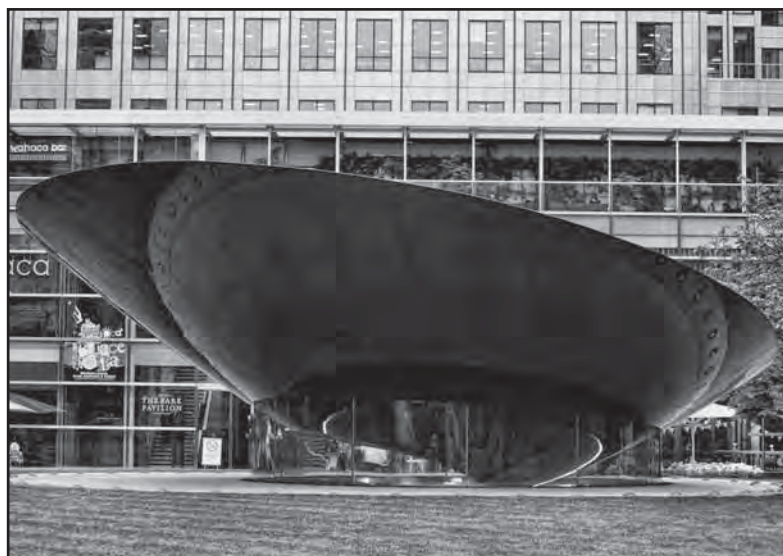

While most members have been enjoying the summer break, with many meeting up for evening 'shoots' and outings in and around the Cotswolds, as well as a weekend trip to London, programme secretary Liz Cooper has been working hard to plan a full calendar of guest speakers and events for the next nine months.

This year, these will include five club competitions; educational events created to help the less experienced camera user benefit from the guidance of more knowledgeable photography fans, plus regular guest speakers who will give presentations spanning a range of subjects and styles, from wildlife to landscape, artistic prints to digital imaging.

For most members, one of the big attractions of the summer break is to be given a guided tour of photogenic locations in parts of the county unfamiliar to them. These are planned by other members who usually know them well. This year the destinations included Chalford, Sevington, Malmesbury and Stroud. Some of the shots taken on these outings will be shown on 6 September, so the evening will be a good one for visitors to see a cross-section of club work and hear what drew different members to the subjects selected.

The picture illustrating this article is a good example of the type of image that will be featured. It was taken by David Calvert during a July visit to Canary Wharf and shows one of the pieces of dramatic art that have become a feature of the financial district. The installation was created by designer and artist Ron Arad and is called The Big Blue. Sitting like a streamlined flying saucer in Canada Square Park, it has a dual purpose: it is not only a focal point in the park, it also provides illumination for a sleek, modern shopping mall below.

If you'd like to see more shots like this, then

Tetbury Camera Club will welcome you to its start of season open evening at The Priory Inn, Tetbury, on 6 September. The club meets there every Tuesday at 7.30pm and offers a perfect occasion for anyone interested in photography, or wanting to develop and perfect their own photographic skills, to meet a like-minded group of people.

There is more about the club at www.tetburycameraclub.org.uk

Ride+Stride: Saturday 10 September

Taking part in Ride+Stride on Saturday 10 September is an excellent way to combine raising money for your church while spending an enjoyable day out exploring your local area on foot, bike or horseback, and visiting some of Wiltshire's rich heritage of churches and chapels. Many of them will welcome you with a drink and a bite to eat.

Half of all money raised goes to the church of your choice, and the other half is used by the Wiltshire Historic Churches Trust to award grants to churches with special maintenance needs.

Last year Ride+Stride raised over £51,000 for Wiltshire's churches, and 34 churches benefited from Wiltshire Historic Churches Trust grants, ranging from £400 to £10,000.

You don't have to be a Bradley Wiggins or a Bear Grylls; just walking between one church and another can constitute participation in Ride+Stride, and most sponsors are generous enough to reward even the shortest of journeys. For the more competitive however, there are cash prizes for the best achievers, including several for under 16-year-olds, and parishes which mobilise large numbers of participants can compete for the Brooke Cup (plus £500) and Junior Group Cup for the under-18s (plus £100).

Anyone can join in! Plan a route that suits your energy levels or get ideas from <http://www.visitwiltshire.co.uk/things-to-do/activities/cycling>. Have a fun day out and perhaps a picnic or pub lunch.

For more information and sponsorship forms contact Pam Pickthall (841072 or pampickthall@hotmail.co.uk) or Charles Graham (01672 514301 or ctg100@hotmail.com) or visit www.wiltshirehistoricchurchestrust.org.uk.

Flying Monk Arts and Craft Trail 24 & 25 September

Flying Monk Arts and Craft Trail is launched with a new name (last year called Malmesbury Arts and Craft Trail) on Saturday 24 and Sunday 25 September. Sixteen venues will be open over the weekend in Malmesbury and the surrounding villages, showing the work of 30 artists and craftspeople. It's a great way to explore the local area, visiting and talking to the creative people themselves, maybe purchasing an original work or two to take home.

We will have venues open in Sherston, Pinkney and Easton Grey, as well as several in Malmesbury, Corston and Lea, showing everything from paintings, prints and pottery, to textiles and jewellery.

Opening times for most of the venues are 10.00am to 5.30pm both days but for the British School Room in Sherston (Gill Ashley, Jenny Riley, Heather Martin and Julia Leyden, paintings, prints and textiles) please note the opening times are 10.00am to 5.30pm on the Saturday and 12.30pm to 5.30pm on the Sunday.

Details of the whole trail are in a leaflet available from Sherston Post Office Stores, other local shops and pubs and Malmesbury Tourist Information Office. You can also find all the details on www.flyingmonkartstrail.co.uk

Take care when answering the door

There have been a number of worrying incidents reported recently in the village of cold callers knocking on doors selling basic household goods. This particular group claim to be rehabilitated prisoners who have been recently released and are now operating under a Probation Service sanctioned scheme to earn some money. The ID is freely offered and appears genuine, plus there may be an additional person hovering in the background who is described as the caller's "probation officer". However, the Probation Service operate no such programme and on a number of occasions the cold callers have been threatening and verbally aggressive.

While we all want to help those in need, caution is needed when dealing with strangers on the doorstep. Wiltshire Police have an active campaign "If you're not sure, don't open the door". If you are not expecting a caller or do not recognise the caller, do not open the door.

The incidents have been reported to the police and if you have any concerns about cold callers at your door please call the police on 101.

Oaksey Autumn Festival: 17–18 September

An Autumn Festival is to be held in Oaksey over the weekend of 17-18 September. The main event will be a flower festival in the beautiful All Saints Church, with a special opportunity to view the unique 15th century wall paintings. This is the first time that such a festival has been held in Oaksey Church for over 20 years. With support from the North Wiltshire Villages Flower Club, the event will run all weekend, and the overall theme will be 'Looking back at Oaksey in the 20th Century'.

The topics covered at the flower festival will include the Grand National, World War II and the Nuremburg Trials, the Pub in the early 1920s, the Forge, the W.I., the Dairy, Clattinger Farm, famed for the Oaksey lily and the orchids, now owned by Wiltshire Wildlife Trust, Oaksey weddings and the butcher's shop. The magnificent wall paintings will highlight the displays and the flowers will be glorious.

All proceeds from the flower festival will go towards the cleaning and restoration of the wall paintings and repairs to the church roof.

The event will coincide with a Produce Show in the Oaksey Village Hall on Saturday and the renowned Scarecrow Trail, with scarecrows being displayed throughout the village and beyond, with prizes to be won. The scarecrow theme for 2016 is 'Around The World'.

The weekend will end with a Harvest Festival Service in the church at 5.00pm on Sunday 18 September, to which all are very welcome.

This will be a wonderful day out with refreshments in the village hall, an open pub and a scarecrow trail to follow! Come, see and enjoy! Tickets on Saturday and Sunday are just £3 with a programme and are available at All Saints Church, Oaksey (SN16 9TG).

A preview evening of the flower display will be held on Friday 16 September, from 6.00pm to 8.00pm, in All Saints Church with a reception, including champagne and canapés, at a cost of £10 per ticket. Tickets are available from Nick Mangnall, Rose Cottage, Oaksey, Wilts, SN16 9TF, on 577982 or via email: nickjmangnall@gmail.com or from the Oaksey village shop. Cheques, including donations, should be made payable to All Saints Church, Oaksey.

The Ship Shop

Following the closure of Luckington Post Office and shop, a new shop has opened behind the Old Royal Ship in Luckington, the 'Ship Shop':

The shop will initially be in a temporary building, so its stock will be limited until the new building is opened. Opening times will be:

7.00am-7.00pm: Monday to Friday;

8.00am-1.00pm: Saturdays; and 9.00am-12.00noon: Sundays.

It will be stocking newspapers, but not, for the moment, delivering them until we can assess demand.

The aim is to supply coffee, tea and other drinks, bacon and sausage baps for collection at people's convenience, as well as pastries and cakes.

The Ship Shop will be supplying the basics but would like customers' suggestions as to what should be stocked on the shelves. We are always open to new ideas.

North Wiltshire Villages Flower Club

The flower club's July meeting was held in Crudwell Village Hall and was attended by a large group of members. The club is always welcomes visitors, and we were pleased to see yet again some new faces and hope that they enjoyed the evening. We were all treated to a demonstration by Cath Brown who is a member of Bradford-On-Avon Flower Club and was part of the gold medal winning team at Chelsea last year. 'The Power of Flowers' was the title and did not disappoint.

Looking forward

Saturday 17/Sunday 18 September: Oaksey Autumn Festival (see page XX for more details). The Flower Club will be involved with creating floral displays in the church. The theme will 'Looking back at Oaksey in the 20th Century'. There will be a preview evening on Friday 16 September; the church will then be open on Saturday 17 and Sunday 18 September, concluding with a harvest festival service at 5.00pm on the Sunday.

Wednesday 28 September: Flower-arranging classes to resume. These will take place in Crudwell Village Hall. If you would like to know more or are interested in booking a place, please contact Margaret on 01285 770639.

Future meetings

Wednesday 21 September: Mildred Stafford will demonstrate under the title of 'Throw Caution to the Wind'.

Wednesday 19 October: AGM and talk by Sue Carter, Head Gardener for National Trust Lacock. (Gardening for Bees)

Wednesday 16 November: Our Christmas event, to be held at the Sundial Theatre in Cirencester. An evening with Demonstrator Nigel Whyles – Deck the Halls. Tickets are now available at £10 for members and £12 for guests.

Flower Club meetings take place at Crudwell Village Hall (SN16 9HB) on the third Wednesday of the month, 7.00pm for 7.30pm. If you enjoy flowers, come and join us, visitors and new members are always welcome. For more information please contact Margaret on 01285 770 639

Malmesbury League of Friends make further donations

The Malmesbury League of Friends (MLOF) has made two further donations, totalling nearly £9,000, following requests from local organisations.

The first, of just over £7,000, through a request from HEALS of Malmesbury, will enable 10 local adults and children to receive disability assessments, which will ensure their disabilities will be professionally recognised, thereby enabling them to apply for the necessary benefits and receive the support they need in their daily lives. The assessments will be undertaken by Dr Julie Betenson, a chartered psychologist, who holds a master's degree in Psychology of Education from Bristol University.

The second donation, almost £2,000, through a request from a local school, will provide vitally needed help for a local family who desperately need urgent temporary financial support to cover the cost of childcare for a period of four months.

MLOF chairman Robin Clark said: 'We are always happy to respond positively to help those in desperate need, as well as continuing to support organisations such as HEALS, which does such excellent work in Malmesbury.'

HEALS Chairman Gavin Grant said: 'We are very grateful for the continuing support of MLOF in helping HEALS' work. These assessments are not available free on the NHS, so they simply would not be possible without this vital support.'

More information on MLOF can be accessed on its web site www.mlaf.co.uk

Malmesbury Concert Band plays the Market Cross: 24 September

The Malmesbury Concert Band (MCB) will be playing in the Market Cross in Malmesbury on Saturday 24 September, between 10.30am and 12.00noon.

While playing a selection of its usual repertoire of classical, popular and original music, the main purpose of the programme will be to promote its main event of the year, the Musical Extravaganza on Saturday 29 October in the Assembly Room, Malmesbury Town Hall.

Band Manager Art Robb said: 'This will provide an opportunity for the band to play, and the public to hear, some of the music we are planning for the Extravaganza.'

More information on MCB can be accessed on its website: www.freewebs.com/malmesburyconcertband
