Sherston Village Hall - a new beginning

The New Year will see us being able to use our wonderful new annexe to the Village Hall. There may well be a few details to complete but largely it will be up and running for use this month. After much discussion amongst the Village Hall committee, we have decided to call it The Butterfly Hall and it will be available to hire as a separate space.

It will be limited to being hired when the main hall is not being used but available slots would probably be mid- to late afternoon, early evening on weekdays. It has its own servery so is suitable for drinks parties, tea afternoons or small groups. It will also come into its own for interval drinks during performances and wedding receptions.

We also plan to run 'drop-in' sessions when you can come for a cup of tea and meet or make friends. This has not been organised yet, but look out for further details.

The official opening will be on Friday 24 February at 3.00pm. We warmly invite anyone who has made a donation to the project, including all those who have 'bought' a butterfly. On the following day, Saturday 25 February, the Village Hall will be open to anyone (times to be decided) who would like to come along and see the new extension. More details in next month's Cliffhanger.

Moving forward, there are more things that we would like to do. We plan to have curtains and a blind on the inner arched window and door for blackout and privacy when events are happening in the main hall. Funding for this is partly coming from the sale of the photobook 'Sherston Life', so do carry on buying the book.

We would like to replace the kitchen door and window, and small hall window, to match the new big windows and for improved insulation.

We would also like to have a website for the Village Hall, to show our facilities and make bookings easier.

Finally, we would like to spend some money on servicing and improving the present heaters. (Apologies to users who have found the halls very cold over the last few weeks.)

So, if you are someone who would like to carry on helping our Village Hall, or perhaps have not donated yet, maybe think of these specific items. Please get in touch:

Sherston Magna Cricket Club County Success

Sherston Magna Cricket Club is pleased to announce that three of its junior players have been selected by Wiltshire Cricket for its Talent Pathway Winter Coaching Programme.

Henrietta Butler has been selected for the County Girls U13 programme, Harris Heathcock for the County Boys U13 programme and Max Tremellen for the County Boys U10 programme.

They will be attending a 12-week winter indoor coaching course in preparation for the 2023 playing season.

We wish them all the best in this next stage of their cricketing development.

After a bit of a break, we have been delighted to be able to perform in public again. It was an honour to be able to sing at the Remembrance Sunday ceremony. We have taken part since the service was moved out of the church to the lychgate in 2014, and it was good to be able to re-turn to normal after a two-year break.

December's performance was very different, Christmas jumpers and Santa hats were in evidence as we sang at the Westonbirt Enchanted Christmas trail on 9 December. If you cast your minds back, that was the very cold spell (about -2°C) and yes we were outside! As usual though, this was a really enjoyable evening. We sang a range of music, from the beautiful Angels' Carol by John Rutter to Rudolf the Red-Nosed Reindeer via A Winter's Tale and many traditional carols. We also had our first bilingual carol with Nataliya singing the Ukrainian words to what we know in English as the Carol of the Bells, which is a traditional song from Ukraine.

After which, we were able to visit the illuminated trail. This year our charity collection was in aid of the Multiple Sclerosis Society.

So we now look forward to another year of singing together, and would love more people to come and join us. There is no audition, and you don't need to be able to read music. We range in age from 13 to 'we don't talk about it!' We meet at 7.30pm on a Wednesday evening, at present in the parish church, and we would love you to join us. Just call in, or contact us via our Facebook page. Our new term starts on Wednesday 11 January. Hope to see some of you then.

The size and content of the Cliffhanger depends entirely on the amount of copy we receive from individuals and groups. So, if you feel you have something of interest, please don't hesitate to tell us. Around 400 words would be a maximum but the shorter the better and less editing would be needed.

Top tip: if you're telling us of an event coming up, write a short piece about it rather than just supply basic details or a poster. You will then get a short article published to help boost interest as well as a mention in our What's On section. Don't forget to tell us how your event went, with a photo if possible.

Boules Festival fund update - and help needed!

Happy New Year from the Boules Festival committee. We are pleased to announce that following a marvellous festival last July, we managed to raise £8,000 for local groups and causes including:

Sherston Parish Church, Village Hall, Cricket Club, Football Club, Netball Club, 922 Squadron ATC, Friends of Sherston School, Senior Club, Sherston Scouts Group, Sherston Brownies, Drama Group, Wiltshire Air Ambulance, Friends of Luckington School, Guides, Congregational church, Sustainable Sherston and Minety Rugby club.

Thank you everyone for your support.

We are already gearing up for this July's festival (15th - save the date!) but we really need more volunteers to get involved and join, or at least help, the committee organise the biggest event in the village calendar! This is a great opportunity to give something back to the community and bring a fresh perspective to the committee.

Please email sherstonboules@gmail.com to register your interest.

December Report

(apologies from the Cliffhanger team that this was not included in the December issue)

Unfortunately, the sugar craft workshop was not able to take place last month due to unforeseen circumstances at the last moment but a member of Sherston WI, Goug Wilcox, stepped in with a fascinating talk on her life in fashion.

Goug was born in Silver Street and then moved into one of the council houses in Easton Square. These six houses were a gift from Sweden after the Second World War (each county got six houses). Goug attended the local schools and then had a year at Chippenham College followed by Dartington College. A year waitressing to make some money was followed by a year in Rome where she was an au pair to three boys and learnt Italian. This was followed by three years at Bristol College of Art studying fashion. Goug returned to Rome where she worked as a designer/sketcher before moving to London to design evening wear and she bought her first studio flat in St Johns Wood. At this point, she found herself out of work and so began her own company, Keturah Brown Ltd, designing lingerie. (Keturah was the name of Goug's grandmother.) The first collection was sold to Harrods and featured in Vogue. After 10 years of designing and making lingerie, Goug received her first British fashion award and she was able to buy her own shop in Primrose Hill and live in the flat above, before returning to live in Sherston some years later. Members were able to see some of the designs and to feel the fabric samples that Goug brought to show us.

Sherston WI is very pleased to have been able to donate £50 to the Malmesbury Food Bank this Christmas and a quantity of warm clothes and toiletries to The Sisters of the Church in Bristol to be distributed where needed.

January Report

It was with anticipation that we were looking forward to our December talk with author Glenn Salter who writes under the pen name of Simon Fairfax but very unfortunately it was a foggy day and Glenn, who was travelling from Worcestershire, was held up in traffic on the motorway and was unable to make it to Sherston.

Some committee members enjoyed decorating the WI Christmas tree in Holy Cross Church with the theme of Jam and Jerusalem. We have to thank our Secretary Alison Swayne for making the decorations and member Helen Quirk for the fantastic cup cakes.

This month, instead of our normal afternoon meeting, we shall be gathering at The Old Royal Ship for a post-Christmas lunch for members.

Raffle fundraising success!

Thank you to everyone who bought a raffle ticket from a half-frozen Beaver, Brownie, Cub or Scout outside the Co-op last month, and thank you to the Co-op and Tracklements for supporting the raffle with hamper donations. We raised over £1,400 which is fantastic and will be a great help towards the Scout Hut running costs for this year.

Happy New Year to all - and congratulations again to the hamper winners!

Sherston Senior Club

On 22 November, we had our last coach outing for 2022 going to Cribbs Causeway. On 29 November, we welcomed back The Jaybirds, a harmonious singing group. They also play unusual instruments, including 'the handbag' a sort of squeezebox. We had a lovely afternoon being entertained by them, followed by warm mince pies and tea and coffee. Alison Atkins brought her jewellery for last-minute presents.

Our next meeting, on 6 December, was our Christmas lunch at The Royal Ship. Members were able to enjoy their meal for half price thanks to the generous donations we have received this year.

Our next meeting is on 10 January at 2.00pm for a quiz and bingo and renewal of membership, held at £15 per year. We are a relaxed and friendly club and new members are very welcome. Finally, we wish everyone a happy and healthy New Year.

Footpath Group Update

Things have been a little quiet of late, but we are now starting to pick things back up again, or maybe we should say we are 'warming things up'.

You may recall that, during the spring last year, a number of residents volunteered to help with the renovation of the steps at the far end of Grove Wood. We had plans to undertake similar work early this year on the steps at the Stretchline end, and are pleased to be able to announce that, with the help of the wonderful Cotswold Warden Volunteer Group, we were able to start that earlier than expected, with works getting off to a great start prior to the period of poor weather at the end of last year. The wardens were able not only to sure up the steps to stop walkers slipping and sliding, but they also surprised us by adding a handrail!

We are hoping to complete the steps themselves, together with addressing issues with the top and bottom paths (assuming we can convince some volunteers to help) by spring this year. Watch this space ...

What else is planned?

The second phase of the eight annual planned phases of the coppicing of Grove Wood has been scheduled in for 29 January. We have a couple of people with both the skills and equipment to undertake the cutting, but really could do with four or five additional people to help with the tidying up of the cuttings themselves. The works will start at 9.00am on 29 January, with volunteers being asked to meet at the far end of Grove Wood. If you do have two or three hours to spare that morning, we really could do with some help!

If you are able to spare some time, please could you email either Nigel.Freeth@Sherston.org.uk or Tanya.Burgess@Sherston.org.uk. Thank you!

This month's meeting is Friday 13 January: The Evolution of Flowers, An illustrated talk by Nick Wray, Curator Bristol Botanic Gardens.

Hope you all had a happy festive season. A big thank you first of all to Sue Shortridge for some fantastic creative ideas at our last meeting! We start the New Year, using the quiet month of January to plan ahead for warmer days in the garden. It's a time for ordering seeds and shrubs, whilst awaiting a burst of colour from spring bulbs and foliage.

Cuttings

Our first talk of the year should get you in the mood. If you've visited Bristol Botanic Gardens, you'll know of the unique plant collections and glasshouses. Over 4,500 species of plants in beautiful displays are designed to tell the story of plant evolution. Nick Wray comes with extensive knowledge and interesting facts and stories. Definitely worth coming along.

New members from Sherston and surrounding villages are welcome: £15 single, £25 joint, U18s free. For membership form and full programme contact our Secretary: sherstongardeningclub@gmail.com

School Days - news from Sherston Primary School

Happy 2023 from everyone at Sherston School! Here's a few highlights from the last term of 2022 ...

Super Swimmers

Congratulations to all our pupils who took part in the Year 5/6 Malmesbury Swimming Gala. They scooped three first places in the individual races and third place overall!

Christingle in Church

We enjoyed a very special morning celebrating Christingle in church last term. Thank you to Revd Adam Beaumont for a lovely service, and to all our children (and families!) for their beautiful singing!

Taking to the stage ...

Our Year 4, 5 and 6 pupils took to the stage for the Willow class assembly on Roman Society and the Sycamore class assembly about Britain's former empire and diversity in multicultural Britain. Particular mentions go to Willow class for their lovely singing and Sycamore class for their ukulele rendition of Bob Marley's 'Three Little Birds'.

Magical Nativity

Our reception, Year 1 and 2 pupils treated us to a magical nativity performance of 'Whoops a Daisy Angel'. Thank you to all our Oak and Rowan class families who came to watch the show – we hope you enjoyed it as much as we did!

Festive Fun

We had lots of festive fun in the run up to Christmas, from the Friends of Sherston School (FSS) Movie Night and Christmas Fair to our Christmas lunch, class parties and an all-school festive quiz and sing-a-long!

A very big thank you to...

Hortico plant centre for donating a lovely Christmas tree to the school from its sustainable plantation.

A very big thank you also to Aaran and the team at Sherston Co-op for all their incredible support and donations - which included everything from supplying all the snacks and drinks for the FSS Christmas Movie Night, to mince pies and sellotape for the Christmas Fair.

Festive Fundraising

Thank you to the wonderful FSS for the array of festive fundraising events last term. The Christmas Fair raised a fantastic £850+ for the school! A special thank you to all the local businesses that generously donated items for the raffle hampers and to everyone who donated gifts for the fair, volunteered to help and came along on the night.

Sherston Drama Group

It was a busy autumn for Sherston Drama Group (SDG)!

Youth Theatre Workshop

In October, a group of our young members enjoyed a one-day drama workshop held jointly by SDG and 'The Last Baguette' theatre group from Malmesbury. We played games, did some improvisation and devised our own scenes. We learnt a lot and had loads of fun, hopefully we can do it again sometime!

Murder is Served

On 19 November, SDG presented its first ever murder-mystery evening, 'Murder is Served' by Jo West. The audience was invited to Chez Lindsay restaurant (which had popped up in the Village Hall for an evening), where they were welcomed by the manager, the charmingly arrogant Toby Lindsay (Graeme Strachan). The audience were there to celebrate the 80th birthday of their friend, cantankerous Clarissa Hopgood (played by newcomer to the group, Sheelagh Hudleston), who was accompanied by her companion, Alice Roper (portrayed perfectly downtrodden by Mandi Bailey-Turner). The audience were served with platters of cheese, meat and biscuits which went down well, though they may later have felt concerned when it was revealed that Toby's new Spanish chef had been responsible for poisoning a large number of guests in her previous job (Nic Pearce-Smith enjoyed revising her Spanish and waving a large knife around in this part).

As the evening wore on, nothing was going right for poor Toby. First, one of the diners collapsed after sipping a sangria and had to be removed by ambulance – newcomer Judith Woolliams made the most of this part by thoroughly milking her own collapse. Meanwhile, the chef was becoming drunker by the minute and Toby was also struggling to conceal the fact that he was having not one but two affairs – one with Alice and one with the waitress, Delilah, played by Katie Skeffington (who also directed). Add in a family argument when Clarissa's son Clive (played with subtle comedy by Chris Fisk) made a surprise appearance with his feisty wife Gloria (Sue Ormiston, who managed multiple accents with ease). And just when it seemed the evening couldn't get any worse, Alice was found violently stabbed to death in the car park!

At this point, it became apparent that (helpfully) one of the guests was actually a distinguished detective, Sir Percival Greenwood (Richard Skeffington), who swiftly called in his constable, PC Jones (played with great authority by Robin Turner). The audience then eagerly interrogated the cast and many important clues were examined. How did the entertainer hired for the evening (a Tom Jones impersonator acted enthusiastically by Richard Warren) know Clarissa from their younger days? What did the mysterious waitress, Amelia Dagger (played by Karli Jones in her first production with the group), have to do with anything? And so on. The audience were then invited to study some physical evidence before writing down their theories, after which Sir Percival revealed the truth. Of the 12 teams, two deduced the correct answer and the prize was given to the table with the best explanation before the evening was rounded off with a rousing rendition of a Tom Jones classic.

Many thanks to those who made this evening possible by their help behind the scenes and front of house - particularly Simon Durrant, Helen Fisk, Debbie Luter, Vee Skeffington and Kate Smee. Thanks also to Tea Smart who took these great photos of the event!

Spring Play 2023

Our next production will be a play at Easter (12-15 April), and we're keen to hear from anyone who'd like to take part! There will be a reading/audition evening in early January after which rehearsals will begin on Tuesday and Thursday evenings in the British School Room. To help us choose a play, it helps to have an idea of who's interested in being in the cast so please email us asap if you are (contact details below) and we'll send you the details of the audition evening.

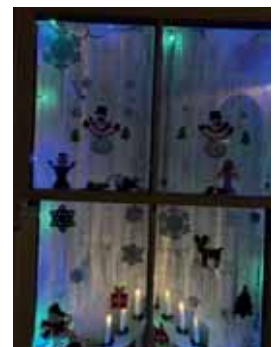

If acting's not your thing but you'd like to be involved in our fun and friendly group don't worry, there's lots of off-stage roles available too! For example you could be a lighting technician or a prompter, make costumes, paint scenery or help run Front of House. Get in touch to discuss how you could be involved! We're also on the lookout for someone to be Assistant Director for this production. Directing is a really rewarding process requiring a mix of creativity and organisational skills, and this is a chance to learn how it's done - just bring enthusiasm and we'll teach you what you need to know!

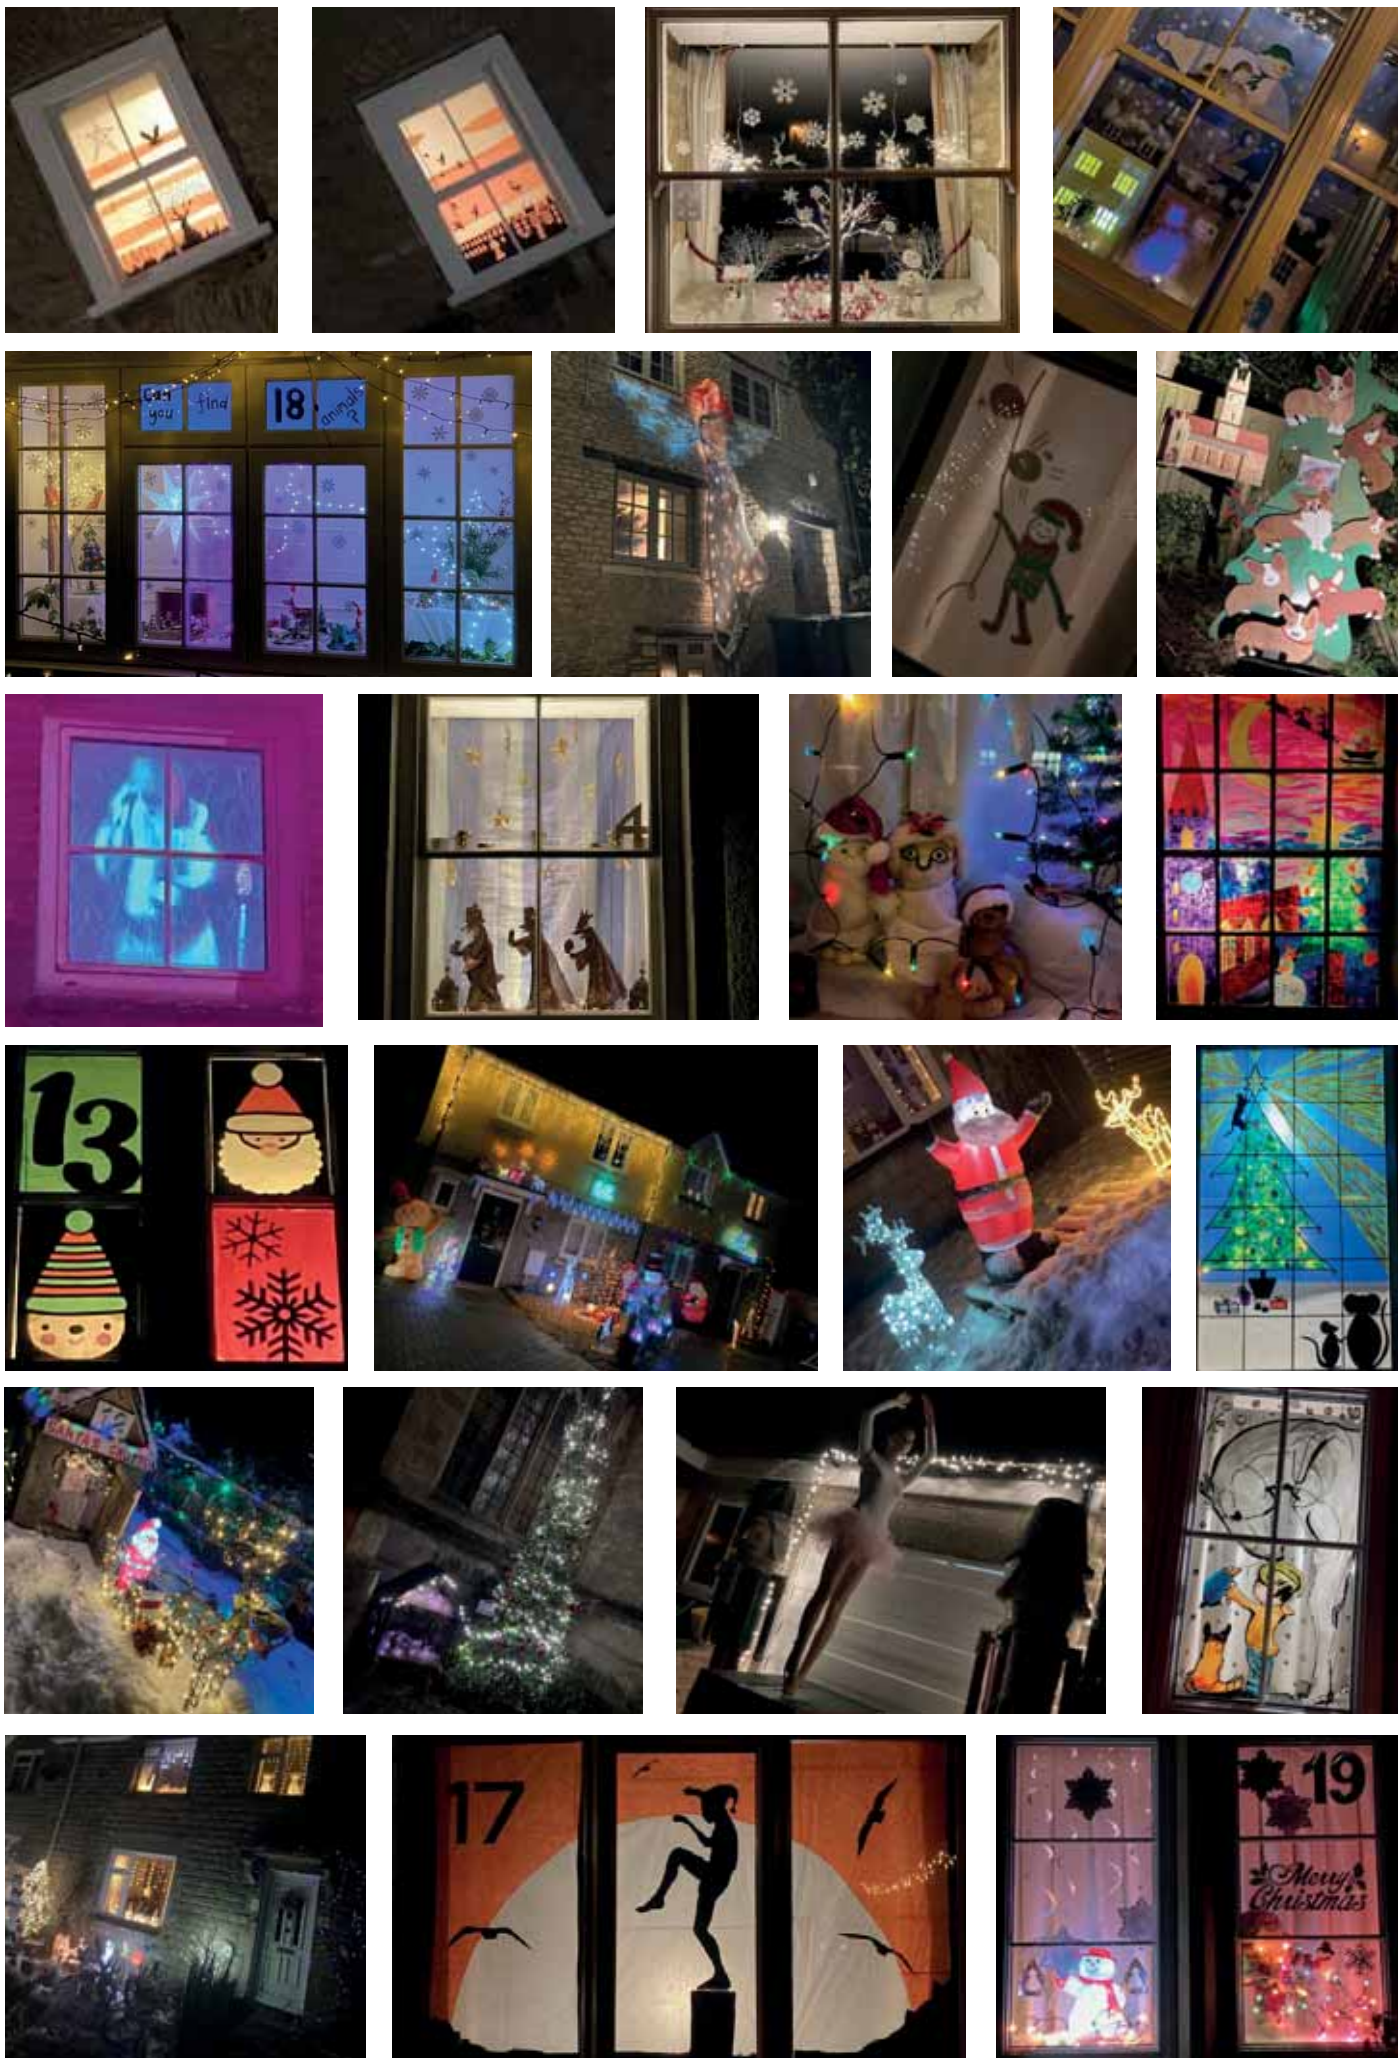

If you're interested in taking part in any way, onstage or off, please email the Director, Richard Skeffington (r.a.skeffington@gmail.com). Both new and past members extremely welcome!

Advent House Magic!

The Sherston Arts Festival would like to thank all the families who took part in the Advent Trail in December. Along with the snow, everyone's amazing creativity sprinkled an extra special bit of magic over the village - with ballerinas, snowmen, snowflakes, reindeer, elves and so much more, it really was an incredible trail! With so many houses taking part, we have tried to include as many pictures as we can ...

Malmesbury & District u3a

Retired? Semi-retired? Looking for new interests? Why not join us? We have 40 different interest groups, including history, gardening, dancing, languages, walking and book groups. Check our website for an up-to-date list of groups and other information: www.malmesburyu3a.org.uk. For more information e-mail membership@malmesburyu3a.org.uk

Monthly meetings take place on the fourth Thursday of the month (10.00am-12.00noon) at Malmesbury Town Hall with Zoom as an option for those who do not wish to attend in person. The meeting format is kept under review to take account of the Covid situation. Non-members welcome. 50p donation.

Our first meetings of 2023 are:

Thursday 26 January - The English War Bow: a medieval military weapon - Hector Cole

Hector is a blacksmith and bladesmith, specialising in historic and archaeological ironwork. Many members will remember Hector's very popular talk in 2020 about the work of the village blacksmith. In this second talk, he will tell us about the long bow in medieval England and its place in military history.

Hector has worked in most of the major museums in the country and has an international reputation as an authority on the forging of historic arrowheads. He has enjoyed shooting the long-bow since his youth and until recently was a keen fencer.

Thursday 23 February - The highs and lows of the early days of the Theatre Royal Bristol - A theatre without a door - Sara Gray

We are lucky to have many u3a members with a multiplicity of talents and interests! Most of us are also fortunate to have been welcomed to the M&D u3a by Sara Gray or to have attended her drama performances. She is a former primary school and drama teacher. After retirement, she gained a degree and then an MA in English literature.

Sara's early working life was spent in an interesting part of Bristol, which she loved, and she has always been fascinated by the city's theatre history. Preparing this talk was a great chance to bring these enthusiasms together and to revisit memories of The Bristol Arts Centre where, with a fantastic teacher, she started to learn the art and craft of acting. The Theatre Royal Bristol is now known as the Bristol Old Vic. It has a rich history to divulge, involving silver tickets, protests, stars, ghosts and an elephant. Something, we hope, for everyone!

We are very excited to be able to announce that tiered seating will be installed in the Town Hall at the start of April. It will feature 10 rows with eight seats per row and will move out from the rear wall on powered wheels. The seats will have high backs and will be air sprung (so no more 'numb bums'). The whole unit should be able to be moved into place in five minutes, meaning that the hall will still be able to be used as a flat space for community use (exercise classes etc) but can be transformed into a cinema / theatre / lecture theatre / concert hall in just a short space of time.

Obviously, this will transform Movies@ Malmesbury, addressing two issues that have concerned us over the years - the uncomfortable nature of the existing seats and the difficulty of being able to see the whole screen from the back of the hall.

Malmesbury League of Friends donates £30,000 to Dorothy House Appeal

The Malmesbury League of Friends (MLOF) has donated £30,000 towards the Dorothy House 'Always Here' Appeal, which aimed to raise £500,000 to help grow and enhance their vital care for local patients and families.

The donation will make a significant contribution to the cost of providing specialist palliative and end-of-life care to patients with life-limiting illnesses in Malmesbury and the surrounding villages. With only 22% of Dorothy House's annual costs funded by the NHS, this type of support from local community groups is absolutely crucial. Dorothy House launched an ambitious fundraising appeal this November to help raise the funds needed to ensure it can continue to care for all those in need of support. This was recognised by the Care Quality Commission in July 2022, when its care was rated as 'Outstanding'.

Thanks to the donations by hundreds of people across the region, the 'Always Here' Appeal successfully raised £450,000 during a 36-hour fundraising effort over the weekend of 5 and 6 November. The MLOF donation played an important role in encouraging others, doubling the impact of their support. It will be used to help fund a newly expanded team of nurses, carers and clinical support assistants, who care for residents in the peace of their own homes.

Philanthropy & Trusts Fundraiser, Anna Robertson, said: 'We have been delighted by the support for this appeal. The MLOF donation is much appreciated, and follows many years of their support for Dorothy House. It will make a real difference to our ability to continue to care for local residents facing death, dying and bereavement.'

MLOF chairman David Hide said: 'We are delighted to support his appeal, which will enable Dorothy House to provide even better levels of care to their patients in the local communities where they live, in our case in and around Malmesbury.'

From L-R: MLOF trustee Paul Hewson, MLOF chairman David Hide & DH Philanthropy & Trust Fundraiser Anna Robertson outside the Dorothy House Malmesbury shop.

North Wiltshire Villages Flower Club

In November, we had a successful workshop using twigs in different ways to make various Christmas arrangements and, in December, we had our Christmas date at Pettifers Hotel for nibbles and chat. Now, we are all ready to welcome in 2023.

Our first meeting is on Wednesday 18 January: 'The Language of Flowers' with demonstrator Caroline Cooper. February's meeting is on Wednesday 15, titled 'Nature's Winter Palette' with demonstrator Coral Gardner. Meetings are held at Crudwell Village Hall, 7.00pm for 7.30pm start. Grove Wood Coppicing

The 2nd phase of the 8 annual planned phases of the coppicing of Grove Wood has been scheduled in for the 29 Jan. Cotswold Warden Volunteer Group has a couple of people with both the skills and equipment to undertake the cutting, but really could do with 4 or 5 additional people to help with the tidying up of the cuttings themselves. The works will start at 9am on 29 Jan, with volunteers being asked to meet at the far end of Grove Wood. If you do have 2 or 2 hours to spare that morning, we really could do with some help! If you are able to spend some time, please could you email either Nigel.Freeth@Sherston.org.uk or Tanya.Burgess@Sherston.org.uk – THANK YOU

Sherston Drama Group Spring Play 2023

The next production will be a play in Easter 2023 (April 12th-15th), and we're keen to hear from anyone who'd like to take part. Reading/audition evening in early Jan after which rehearsals will begin on Tuesday and Thursday evenings in the British School Room. To help us choose a play it helps to have an idea of who's interested in being in the cast so please email us asap if you are (contact details below) and we'll send you the details of the audition evening.

Off-stage roles available include a lighting technician, a prompter, make costumes, paint scenery, or help run Front of House. Get in touch to discuss how you could be involved! We're also on the lookout for someone to be Assistant Director for this production. Directing is a really rewarding process requiring a mix of creativity and organizational skills, and this is a chance to learn how it's done – just bring enthusiasm and we'll teach you what you need to know! If you're interested in taking part in any way, onstage or off, please email the Director, Richard Skeffington (r.a.skeffington@gmail.com). Both new and past members extremely welcome!

Sherston Arts Festival 2023

We will start planning events for the Festival, which usually takes place in October, in January. Ten days of exhibitions, music and children's events, which is always great fun.

However, we need a new Secretary on the committee. If you would like to help with planning next year's Festival, and have your say in what happens etc, please get in touch. heather@geoffmartin.plus.com
