

THE SHERSTON CLIFFHANGER

PUBLISHED BY SHERSTON PARISH COUNCIL

OCTOBER 2020

DELIVERED FREE

Sherston came together for two days of food, fun, music and a little magic over the August Bank Holiday weekend.

Sitting in socially distanced plots, families and friends enjoyed being together outside watching some wonderfully talented performers on both Saturday and Sunday.

The atmosphere was joyous, and I believe it was a well-earned break, for everyone, from the 'difficulties' this year has thrown at us; all the performers told us afterwards that it was so good to be in front of an audience who wanted to listen and watch.

Thankfully, the weather was kind to us for the event, which was a huge help.

We had a science lesson, which went off with a bang (eventually!), a range of singer/songwriters, a beautiful classical oboe recital, a couple of covers bands and Adam Allsortz entertaining the kids with card tricks and riddles.

I would like to thank everyone who helped make this happen, the two main sponsors, James Pyle and Lucy Tom Interiors who put their hands up right at the start to get it off the ground.

The Big Picnic Team, Dave, Mike, Emma and Sally (great bacon sarnies!) Rosie and Ellie for great bucket rattling.

Paul Ormiston for all the printwork and design assistance, all the technicians who gave up their weekend to help us.

I also want to mention Alex, Stuart, Caroline and Jez who all turned up in foul weather to help build the event. Nic, Elaine and Fred who took charge of the entrance gate and managed the occasional dance!

Susan Harvey for arranging the good weather and constantly smiling Sunday afternoon!

Tracie Burton and HSBC for the 'goodie' bags and the messages of support throughout the whole period.

Chris, Tony and the Village Hall Trustees for their support.

The waste disposal / recycling team, better known as Richard Langley and Dunc, who did a fantastic job of keeping the site clean and making sure all those Champagne, cava and prosecco bottles went into the glass bin!

Most of all I would like to thank you; the villagers of Sherston and surrounding areas for bringing your happy faces, supporting the raffle and giving generously to the donations bucket.

Together, we created a lovely, friendly, fun atmosphere and proved, yet again, what an amazing community we have here.

Stay Safe, Big Love. The Big Picnic Team

Cliffhanger advertising volunteer needed

The Cliffhanger is entirely run by volunteers and has a very important role in passing on the Parish Council's news as well as publicising the social activities of the village.

The current advertising volunteer, Tahiti van Rooyen, is 'retiring' after four years in the post so a new volunteer is required.

The role involves booking in any new ads, issuing invoices on behalf of the Parish Council etc.

So if you would like to contribute to the village in this small but vital way, please contact:

info@sherstoncliffhanger.co.uk

Inserts in the Cliffhanger

This month will be the last month in the foreseeable future that there will be a leaflet insert. This is due to a review of Covid-19 safety measures for the distribution volunteers and reduced admin time available to volunteers.

Copy deadline: 10th of the previous month.
Send to editorial@sherstoncliffhanger.co.uk or hard copy to Sherston Post Office Stores.

What's On: contact Caroline Moore at
info@sherstoncliffhanger.co.uk

The size and content of the Cliffhanger depends entirely on the amount of copy we receive from individuals and groups. So, if you feel you have something of interest, please don't hesitate to tell us. Around 400 words would be a maximum but the shorter the better and less editing would be needed.

Top tip: if you're telling us of an event coming up, write a short piece about it rather than just supply basic details or a poster. You will then get a short article published to help boost interest as well as a mention in our What's On section. Don't forget to tell us how your event went, with a photo if possible.

To advertise, contact:
Tahiti van Rooyen
advertising@sherstoncliffhanger.co.uk

Advertising rates:
for 12 months:
1/4 page £280; 1/8 page £150; and 1/16 page £70
for one month:
1/4 page £80; 1/8 page £50; and 1/16 page £30

Whilst every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of advertisements contained in this publication, Cliffhanger cannot accept any liability for errors and omissions. Inclusion of an advert should not be taken as an endorsement by Sherston Parish Council.

Please remember the Cliffhanger is delivered free to every home and business in the parish – approx 1000 copies. This and all previous editions are also available online at www.sherston.org.uk

Sherston Open Gardens Weekend

We planned this event, which should have happened in June, with some trepidation. After many months with so much uncertainty, we did not know whether we could hold an event of this sort. Some garden owners thought their gardens would not be worth opening in September, we reassured them it didn't matter too much, as the main thing was to give the opportunity for visitors to walk around the village and look behind gates or walls. Flowers were a bonus!

Serving refreshments at church was another hurdle to jump but the team worked together and very successfully served tea and cakes in the open air. We had nearly 200 visitors, some from as far as Oxfordshire and Somerset, as there are so few gardens to visit at the moment. We had many appreciative comments. Local people also took the opportunity to catch up for a chat with acquaintances they hadn't seen for months.

Thanks to all those who helped over the weekend, particularly those serving teas, those who made cakes, donated plants, and of course, those who had worked hard getting their gardens up to a standard to open to the public, they were all fantastic.

A good amount was raised for the maintenance of our lovely Church of the Holy Cross, income for which has suffered over the last six months.

Art in Lockdown: 26-27 September

Open 10.30am to 5.00pm on Saturday and 12.30pm to 5.00pm on Sunday, this event replaces the Flying Monk Arts Trail.

A small group of local artists have been busy during the last several months producing work in a variety of media. Some of this particularly reflects the lockdown, when we were all restricted in so many ways. Some of us were inspired by our immediate locality on our daily walks, others referred to holidays and happy memories.

Showing work are two painters in various media, Gill Ashley and Jenny Riley; Gloria Pugh will show textiles; and Heather Martin will show textiles and drawings.

The allotments have looked better than ever before, as people had so much time on their hands. The season has been captured at regular intervals by photographer Liz Cooper and filmmaker Tea Smart who will show the record they have made.

Guest exhibitor – potter Christopher White

Most of the work will be for sale and there will be a collection for Wiltshire Air Ambulance. We will ask all visitors to adhere to social-distancing rules and may restrict numbers at any one time.

Extraordinary Times

What an extraordinary six months we have experienced. We had to get used to lockdown which led to isolation from friends and family, and to hospitalization for some.

Whilst many restrictions were eased, at the time of writing we are now getting used to 'The Rule of Six' and the return to school. Covid cases are rising nationally and it looks likely that further measures may be imposed.

From a community point of view, it was hugely reassuring to see the resilience shown by everyone in the Parish. The Co-op, the surgery and other village organisations played a pivotal role in keeping us all going.

The army of Sherston C-19 Volunteers made the new world of lockdown so much easier to cope with for the elderly, the vulnerable, the lonely and the unwell in the village. They gave everyone the feeling of inclusion and banished any sense of exclusion. They distributed prescriptions, ran shopping errands and kept an eye on everyone in their respective patches. Sherston owes each and every volunteer an enormous vote of heartfelt thanks.

We also have Calcot Manor Hotel to thank for donating nearly 500 meals to Sherston. Calcot's generosity and the regular deliveries carried out by Sherston volunteers made a very great difference to many people's lives. (The details of this scheme were covered in the last edition.)

The publication of this, the second post-Covid Cliffhanger is another sign that we are getting back to some sort of normality. Let's hope and pray that Sherston will not have to face another lockdown but, if we do, we have the well-worked blue print of a plan, the experience, expertise, resilience and volunteers to weather the storm.

We have succeeded once and we can certainly rise to the challenge again.

John Matthews

Staying safe

Moving forward, I have some news to share with you but I will keep it short. Of course, just give me a call if you would like more information or if there's anything else I may be able to help with.

- Beware the scams ... again. With new legislation and furlough payments, there comes a host of new scams. This week alone I have been told that I have a tax rebate and a tax fraud case against me, that a friend has lost his phone and a lady in Nigeria would like to give me a share of $50,000,000. Always to be very cautious and any genuine callers will agree to put their message etc in writing – nothing is ever that desperately urgent. Don't give away your address; genuine callers will already know that.
- Do you have memory problems or know someone who does? Music is a great stimulus for memories of times past and Playlist for Life has produced a great little booklet to have some fun with thinking of the old tunes and why we loved them.
- I have some leaflets which have been produced by Wiltshire Council on staying safe during these strange times. I plan to pop a supply to each village and leave them, wherever possible, in your churches or church porches. I will also leave some in the library in Malmesbury.
- As the groups and clubs start to re-open, please let me know. I would love to pop along to say hello to you all again and catch up with the news.

- Lastly, the impact of the virus continues in less obvious ways. Many of us have poor hearing and we often combine other senses to communicate. Sadly, face masks reduce our ability to 'read' people's faces. Salisbury Hospital has offered some ideas on how to overcome barriers to communication through face coverings:
 - Speak slowly and clearly – our brains need time to put all the clues together, especially in difficult environments
 - Reduce noise and obtain the person's attention – do what you can to remove noise sources or move the person into a quieter space if possible.
 - Re-phrase sentences if not heard – use different words, avoid repeating a phrase that has already proved difficult to hear.
 - Give time for the person to respond – they may still be working out what you've said.
 - Avoid shouting, over-emphasising or exaggerating your words – this can be more harmful than helpful and can be misunderstood as aggressiveness.
 - Face the person – don't turn or walk away while finishing a sentence, this only adds to the attenuation offered by face coverings.

As always, if you have a problem that I may be able to help with, give me a call on 07557 922020 and leave a message or email me: ellen.blacker@wiltshire.gov.uk. Be aware that I work part time and, although I will get back to you as soon as I can, it may be a day or so.

Stay safe everyone ... Ellen

Thank you to Sherston residents

Medical Detection Dogs has recently received another very full collection tin from the Sherston residents who shop at the Co-op for which we are very grateful.

Our relationship with Sherston started in July 2018 whilst Gail and Paul Mather were in business and luckily the Co-op has continued receiving the collection boxes, which have collected a wonderful £189.26 over that period.

Medical Detection Dogs is particularly grateful for your donations as the amazing work that our dogs are trained for is covered purely from public donation.

Some of you may have heard a talk I gave in Sherston in October 2016, in which I explained that we have two arms to our charity. We train dogs to smell the odour of cancers, bacteria, malaria and Parkinson's and we also have dogs that are trained to detect the difference in the smell of their human partners just before an imminent collapse, i.e. blood glucose conditions (typically type 1 diabetes), allergies, Addisons, Postural Orthostatic Tachycardia Syndrome and PTSD. All of these give no warning that a collapse will happen, seriously restricting the ability for the sufferer to have a normal life.

I am sure that many of you will have heard that our dogs are also being trained to detect Covid-19. They will be used in the detection of the virus at ports of entry, in the same way as drug and explosive dogs are used. They have identified the odour and are currently training on samples and controls provided for us by the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine.

Obviously all the hard work by volunteers in the form of talks and fundraising has had to stop since March and I am, therefore, asking for your continued support of this wonderful charity.

A lot more information is available on our website, please visit www.medicaldetectiondogs.org.uk.

As we slowly creak back into life to what seems to be called 'the new normal' I just wanted to say hello again and that I hope you are all fit and well. We have been through such difficult times and my thoughts have been with you.

'Woody' Sherston's former Brownie leader

My mum Jane Hillier sadly passed away on 19 April this year. She was known to many as 'Woody', Sherston's Brownie leader. She ran the Brownie pack for over 25 years. She was totally committed to the girls in her pack, providing them with fantastic experiences as Brownies. Our whole family were persuaded to get involved in her plans, our kitchen regularly had a couple of Brownies doing their cook's badge. There were numerous carnival floats produced, pantomimes, coffee mornings, parents' entertainment evenings (with my dad as Father Christmas) outings, camping out in the Scout Hut, etc. We even hosted a camping expedition in our garden (when the dog got fed a few too many sausages). Mum's enthusiasm was infectious and we all helped willingly. She became a District Commissioner for a few years too.

For 27 years, Mum was also a Lollipop Lady and a dinner lady at the school. I found a lovely cutting from a Parish Magazine from many years ago putting on record the appreciation felt by mums for the caring and patient help given by mum to the children of Sherston School both at dinner times and when seeing them across the road and praise for her 'mum spotting' skills and vetting of anyone she didn't know collecting children.

I well remember as a child being grumpy and cross at her getting the job; I didn't want my mum standing in the middle of the road to help children cross the road but she loved it and I can't deny she did it so well.

To me, she was the best mum I could have wished for because, despite all she did for others, she still had the time and patience to be a wonderful mum to me and my brother and a doting nan to my children.

She was married to my lovely dad Malcolm for over 61 years. They were devoted to each other right from the start, as letters we recently found, sent when dad was in the RAF in Egypt confirm to me.

Dad died in February 2019 and mum found it just too hard to cope without him when she became ill in July 2019. The staff at Hill House care home were lovely with her but the hardest thing was not being able to see her for five weeks before she died because of lockdown and, as I am sure many others have found this year, having to have such a quick, quiet and very small funeral for someone who contributed so much to the village.

I have written this tribute since so many people have spoken to me to express their gratitude for her devotion to so many Sherston children over the years and regret at there being no proper funeral.

Thank you mum, nan, Woody, Mrs Hillier you really were one of the best.

The Goods Shed is back!

TETBURY GOODS SHED

ARTS CENTRE

Our film sessions on a Thursday are back from 8 October – and, because we're limiting numbers at each showing, we're actually running a matinée showing at 2.00pm, as well as our usual 7.00pm showing. The first film is Military Wives, followed by 1917 and Little Women.

We've been awarded the Visit England's We're Good To Go industry mark to show that we're Covid-safe but obviously there will be a few changes to our normal arrangements.

To begin with, you need to book numbered seats online and we will be sitting at tables rather than in the raked seating. There will be the usual one-way systems and hand-sanitising equipment, etc.

There will be a bar in the railway carriage with covered waiting areas and the toilets will be available.

We've done everything we can to make you feel safe and hope to welcome you back soon (and statistically apparently in the Cotswolds, because we're such a low-risk area, you're more likely to have a car accident on the way there than catch anything in The Shed!).

Please look at our website for more details of this and other events planned for later in the autumn.

TETBURY HOSPITAL

Our annual house-to-house collection, that we postponed until September, has now been cancelled. It is part of our fundraising year that is so important to us and we will miss being out in the community catching up with familiar faces and meeting new ones. Rest assured, we will be bringing it back next year!

We will run our COVID-19 Recovery Appeal a little longer so you can still support us. If you have already donated to our appeal, thank you so much for your generosity - the support we have received has been tremendous.

The NHS Charities Together Fund has achieved remarkable results with fundraising over recent months. Unfortunately, as Tetbury Hospital is an independent charity, not an NHS charity, we are not eligible to apply for these funds.

Use our DONATE button on the website www.tetburyhospital.co.uk or send your donation to us at Covid-19 Recovery Appeal, Tetbury Hospital, Malmesbury Road, Tetbury, GL8 8XB.

Keep spreading the word about our wonderful hospital and we look forward to when we can get back to running events and seeing you soon.

If you are interested in joining our Friends Committee or live in a surrounding village and would like to become an Ambassador, please contact Katharine Landale, Chairman of The Friends, at friends@tetburyhospital.co.uk.

A Jaunt through the Years

Another excerpt from the late George Stephens' recollections and stories of life in bygone Sherston, written in 1995.

The changing of Sherston street names like 'Back Lane' to 'Grove Road' and 'Back Street' to 'Cliff Road' around the late 50s or early 60s was nothing new. In the 1880s the lane between the High Street and Back Street was then known as 'Over Street', it was later changed to 'The Swan Passage' and is now known as The Swan Barton. The British Schoolroom in Cliff Road was built on the site of St Mary's House. The Church House in the High Street was then number 16, and was built in 1511. Half of it was rebuilt in 1859, then it was completely rebuilt in 1961. The purpose of the Church House was to raise money to pay Church expenses, this was known as 'Raising the Wind'. They brewed Church ales, baked bread and cakes, which were sold at Whitsuntide.

Sherston Tradesmen in the early part of the century

Sherston had many assorted shops and trades. The village was always self sufficient. Especially in the 1920s and '30s, there being no need to go outside the village for anything. However it soon became possible to travel to surrounding towns if the need should arise. It was about the year 1924 that saw the start of The Milson Motor Services, as advertised in the Church Magazine of that time. Many people took full advantage of this new form of transport. Until then it had been necessary to walk, or for those fortunate enough to own a bicycle, ride into Malmesbury or anywhere else people might decide to go. But now they had a Motor Bus to ride in and this in itself was a novelty. 'Been on the bus yet?' was a question people asked their friends and neighbours, as today they might say, 'Have you been on Concorde yet?' The new bus operated several times a day to Malmesbury, twice a day to Chippenham, and once to Bristol. If one wanted to travel to Malmesbury, then one would walk up to the High Street and board the bus which was parked outside the proprietor's house.

Every five minutes or so he would come out of his premises, stand on the step of his bus then proceed to nod his head and point, as he counted the number of passengers. When he was satisfied that he had enough to make the journey worthwhile, Mr Mills would say, 'Right, everybody ready then?' Only at that time was he prepared to drive away. The fares would be collected when the bus reached its destination. Then after a brief stop it made the return journey.

Around the year 1912, a circus began its annual visit to perform in Sherston, and it was to become a regular event for a number of years. The 'Big Top' was erected in the paddock adjoining The Carpenter's Arms in Easton Town. The main attraction was 'The Wild Beast Show', there were also performing dogs, and the usual funny clowns, but it was the lions and tiger that were looked forward to most. The tent was always full, there being little entertainment in those days. The entrance fee was one penny for children. As a boy of about eight years, I remember a Circus coming to the same site, though a different Circus of course. We all first paid a visit to our local sweetshop opposite the Church. Mrs Neale served us all as we took our turn to spend our ha'penny on a pink whistle made of spearmint gum. Then it was on to the Circus. Here we paid our money and took our seats. The show usually began with horses, then on to the clowns. We blew our pink whistles until we were threatened with rapid eviction, unless the whistle blowing stopped, so we all ended up with a mouthful of pink sticky gum, that was by this time completely tasteless, and had the consistency of candle grease. Most of us got rid of it by spitting it out on to the grass, where some unfortunate person probably transferred it via their shoe to the living room carpet or lino.

The paddock adjoining The Carpenter's Arms was also the site of annual visits by the British Army for drilling purposes. Firing practice took place at The Rifle Range which had been active since 1910. This was built on the site of an early 17th century Barn and is used today as a village hall. It was given to Sherston by Sir George Holford, who owned Westonbirt estate. A report in the Church magazine for the year 1911-12 reads, 'The Sherston miniature rifle club opened its third season on Saturday November 4th 1911. During the year, 28 members joined as annual subscribers, 7 paid the weekly subscription. The Range was used on 47 evenings, and about 7,000 rounds of ammunition were fired!' The Rifle Club and the annual visits of British soldiers were responsible for some enlistments, especially as the young ladies of the village showed a keen interest in the Army activities.

Please read and help with the development of Sherston Sports Facilities

As members of Sherston Parish Council we are writing to you with the aim of gathering your views on the needs for recreation and sport within the village, with the hope that we can all create quality and useful sporting facilities.

After the consultation, our hope is that a proposal for facilities and development can be put to the village, followed by applications for funding.

If you have an interest in a particular sport that you would like to be represented, an expertise in delivering sports developments and/or funding applications and wish to help, please contact using the details below.

Please complete this questionnaire and return using one of the methods listed below;

Either by delivering through the letterbox of 5 Knockdown Road, Sherston.

Calling 07979 388208 and one of us will come to collect from your house.

Email the parish clerk sending your scanned document using clerk@sherston.org.uk

Thank you.

Your cooperation will help with the design and plans for the long-term future and development of sports facilities in the village.

North Wiltshire Villages Flower Club

Although unfortunately the Flower Club has been unable to meet for six months, behind the scenes work has continued on planning future events as lockdown measures continue to ease. The committee met in late July (socially distanced, outdoors) to discuss how best to move forward during these difficult times. Given the current uncertainty over the opening of venues, and the necessity of social distancing, it was felt that the remainder of the programme planned for 2020 wasn't feasible and sadly would have to be cancelled. This includes our major event for the year planned to be held at the Sundial Theatre Cirencester in November. The only exception is our September AGM which will be held via Zoom.

We hope to actively re-start the Club from January 2021. A full programme of events for next year has already been arranged, incorporating several originally planned for this year. As usual the programme is very varied and includes a good mix of workshops, demonstrations, social events and visits.

In 2021 we very much hope that Flower Club meetings will once again take place at Crudwell Village Hall, SN16 9HB, on the third Wednesday of the month, 7.00pm for 7.30pm (with some exceptions for social events/visits as outlined in our programme). We are a friendly and enthusiastic group with members from throughout the area. Visitors and potential new members are guaranteed a warm welcome at our regular meetings, so please do come along if you're interested. We really look forward to welcoming back both our current members and any guests at our next meeting which is planned for Wednesday 20 January 2021 (regulations permitting). Save the date!

In the meantime, stay safe and well. If you'd like to get in touch, we can be contacted by email: nwvflowerclub@gmail.com.

Sherston Magna CC

Well, if I'd had to write something in June, I think I would have been saying how sad it was that there would be no cricket this year.

How wrong I would have been! We have in fact played cricket since the end of July. There has been training and matches for U9, U11, U13, U15 and senior cricket, both league and friendlies. A huge thank you goes to all those involved in making the club Covid-compliant and allowing us all to enjoy the amazing facilities at Pinkney Park. Sadly, there was no All Stars cricket this year but we hope that will be back for next summer

It has been great to see so many young - and old - boys and girls enjoying themselves and playing sport in the current times. The improvement in the junior section has been amazing, so the time and effort put in by all the coaches and helpers has paid dividends and bodes well for the future of the club. Another big thank you goes to all of those involved. There has been evidenced by how many youngsters have been picked to play representative cricket both district and county - well done to you all.

My personal highlight is that so many of our younger players have broken into the Saturday and Sunday teams and not just to make up the numbers but contributing with bat and ball.

Unfortunately, the season has now come to a close; hopefully we will get to do some winter nets but we will advertise this as and when.

But for now, I hope all the members winter well and see you at Pinkney Park next year.

If you would like to be involved in the club in any way - player, coach, admin, sponsorship - we would love to hear from you at cricket@sherstonmagnacc.co.uk.
