Rec Fencing Completed… at last!

Sherston Parish Council

The Parish Council is very pleased to have successfully found the funds to finish the fencing around the Recreation Ground which was not completed during the initial refurbishment many years ago.

As you will probably have seen, the awful wire fencing has been replaced with a continuation of the smart black fencing along the full length of Court Street. I am sure you will agree with us that it looks so much better.

Sherston Boules Festival Committee Celebrates 40th Event with Record £12,000 Community Donation

After a hugely successful 40th Sherston Boules Festival in July, our accounts have been finalised, and we are thrilled to announce that we are donating £12,000 to support a wide range of local community groups! This marks a fantastic 50 per cent increase on our 2025 donation and ensures that the organisations playing a vital role in Sherston and the surrounding area can continue to thrive.

Among this year's beneficiaries are key village institutions, including Sherston Parish Church and Sherston Village Hall.

We are also delighted to support local youth, educational, and recreational groups. Funding will go directly to the Friends of Sherston School, ATC 992 Squadron, 1st Sherston Scout Group, 1st Sherston Brownies and Guides, Sherston Senior Club, Sherston Drama Group, Sherston Shooters Netball Club, Sherston Badminton and Table Tennis Club, Sherston Magna Cricket Club, Sherston Town Football Club, Sherston Baby and Toddler Group, Sustainable Sherston, Sherston Gardening Club, Sherston Church Bell Ringers, Sherston Community Choir, Sherston Congregational Church, and Friends of Luckington School. In addition, we are supporting the Wiltshire Air Ambulance to help sustain their crucial life-saving emergency services.

This festival simply couldn't happen without the dedication of our community. Many of these recipient groups made a meaningful contribution to this year's success by dedicating considerable time and effort as volunteers before and during the festival weekend. Their active involvement was essential, and we are deeply grateful for their hard work.

We want to send a huge thank you to the High Street residents and to everybody who came along - whether you played, participated, or volunteered to make this another wonderful event! If you are interested in helping out for next year's event, in any shape or form, please email us at sherstonboules@gmail.com.

Looking ahead, please put next year's date in your diaries: Saturday 10 July 2027.

Without the restrictions that this year's Badminton Royal Horticultural event placed on us, we are delighted to be returning to our usual schedule on the Saturday closest to Bastille Day. We can't wait to see you all there!

Parish Council Meeting

The next meeting will take place on Thursday 12 November at 7.00pm in the North building. Everyone is welcome to attend. You will have the opportunity to raise questions and pass comment. If you're unable to attend but have something to raise, please email clerk@sherston.org.uk.

Sherston's Remembrance Service 2026

This year's Sherston Remembrance Service will take place on Sunday 8 November. All are welcome - from all denominations and none - to show our support for the armed forces, and to commemorate those who gave their lives for our freedom in conflicts past.

Sherston's uniformed youth organisations together with children from the school will be parading from the Scout Hut on Green Lane to Church Street. The open-air ceremony will commence there at 10.45am; please remember to bring cash for the collection which will go to the Poppy Fund.

Copy deadline: 10th of the previous month. Send to editorial@sherstoncliffhanger.co.uk or hard copy to Compass (door on the right as you enter the Co-op).

What's On: contact us at info@sherstoncliffhanger.co.uk

The size and content of the Cliffhanger depends entirely on the amount of copy we receive from individuals and groups. So, if you feel you have something of interest, please don't hesitate to tell us. Around 400 words would be a maximum but the shorter the better and less editing would be needed.

Top tip: if you're telling us of an event coming up, write a short piece about it rather than just supply basic details or a poster. You will then get a short article published to help boost interest as well as a mention in our What's On section. Don't forget to tell us how your event went, with a photo if possible.

Apple Day Success

Sherston Apple Day 2026 was a huge success! We had lots of fun, with apple pressing and the BBQ from Luckington Farm and much more - plus lots of very well-attended workshops for kids, organised by Ffion Hibbard of the Friends of Sherston School.

We sold out of pre-pressed Sherston Apple Juice, but there are some bottles available that were pressed on the day. These can be ordered from Eleanor Lines on 07949 292741, raising funds for Sustainable Sherston and Sherston School!

Thanks to everyone who worked so hard to make it a successful day including Chris Sworder for his apples from Easton Piercy in an otherwise sparse year for apples. See you next year!

Give your Medlars a New Purpose - and support a bee-rilliant cause!

As part of its commitment to being environmentally friendly, local condiment-maker Tracklements is putting unwanted medlars to good use this autumn by inviting the local community to donate their fruit. Tracklements turns this quirky fruit into their delicious Aromatic Medlar Jelly, where 50p from the sale of each jar goes towards helping protect the bees: 25p goes towards purchasing bee-friendly medlar trees, which blossom after other blossoms have faded, providing the bees with an invaluable source of pollen; and 25p is donated to the British Beekeepers Association, a charity that is committed to protecting and promoting the importance of the British honey bee.

The project is now in its 16th year and has resulted in the planting of more than 150 bee-friendly medlar trees across Britain, while also raising over £3,000 for the British Beekeepers Association through Tracklements' donations last year alone! If you have any medlars you'd like to donate to a bee-rilliant cause, all you need to do is drop them off at Tracklements HQ (SN16 0RD) before Monday 30 November. (Please note, we can only accept medlars that are at their best - no bruises, please!). For full details on the project and on how to win your very own medlar tree, visit www.tracklements.co.uk.

No medlars? No worries! You can still support the project by purchasing a jar of this sweet, aromatic jelly - just in time to enjoy it with warming roasts and cheeseboards!

Junior waiting list

If your child's been inspired to join us in a future panto, please note that we now have a waiting list. Details and the sign-up form can be found on our website under the membership tab. The sooner you sign up, the better your chances of securing a place next year!

New staging

Our current stage was designed and constructed in 1982 by Malcolm Jarrett and Arthur Gutteridge. We have to build the stage for every production; by our calculations this stage has been built and taken down around 100 times since those early days! Unsurprisingly, after more than 40 years of heavy use, the wooden legs which hold up the stage are now nearing the end of their life. We're hoping to replace the stage legs and flooring with a more modern solution, which uses metal frames and plywood tops. This type of modular staging is widely used and can be customised to perfectly fit the hall. It should last for decades, and be much lighter, simpler and safer to construct. We won't be replacing the upper half of the stage – the proscenium arch and systems for securing the scenery to the stage will all remain the originals.

Unfortunately this project isn't cheap. We're exploring various possibilities, but we've also set up a Crowdfunder page www.crowdfunder.co.uk/p/sherston-drama-group-new-staging which can also be accessed via the Crowdfunder website. If you're able to donate any amount, no matter how small, we would be extremely grateful! And look out for a shiny new stage floor which will hopefully be making it's debut within our next few productions!

Coming to Sherston: Simon and Garfunkel Through the Years

We are so excited to bring Simon and Garfunkel Through the Years back to Sherston Village Hall. Last time they came, the hall was full. They were so good that we booked them again, but then Covid struck so we had to cancel. After that, the Butterfly Hall was being built, and there's been a lot going on since then.

So, save the date: Friday 12 February 2027 at 7.30pm! Tickets - £20 per person, will be on sale from Monday 30 November on Ticketsource.

Sherston Senior Club

Back in September, we had our last outing for the year. We went to Cotswold Airport and spent several hours enjoying the weather and watching the aircraft.

At our next meeting, Tony House was the speaker, telling us all about his fascination with wildlife, particularly otters and beavers.

Looking ahead, on Tuesday 3 November, Jay Dunn will give a talk on 'Kenneth Williams, the life, the laughter, the man', and on Tuesday 17 November, we will have musical entertainment by the Peekies.

Visitors are always welcome, our meetings start at 2.00pm in the British School Room, Cliff Road. For further information, please contact Helen Quirk on 840516.

Holy Cross News

Gauzebrook Benefice welcomes new Priest-in-Charge

You may have heard the church bells ringing on Monday 28 September in the early evening to mark the service of installation for our new priest, the Reverend Ross Pilliner. Ross joins us from the Diocese of Llandaff in South Wales, having previously served in Cardiff and Cowbridge. Originally from Neath, he trained for ordained ministry at St Padarn's College.

The service was led by Bishop Neil of Bristol, and the church was packed with guests and members of the churches from across Gauzebrook Benefice. As part of the service, Ross received the keys to the church and rang the minute bell to signify his arrival to the parishes.

'The licensing was a special occasion, with some great singing from the Gauzebrook Benefice Choir, joined by friends from my old church in Wales. I was also told about the tradition of the new priest ringing the church bell, with the number of rings supposedly representing the number of years they intend to stay. Unfortunately, when I first pulled the rope, nothing happened! Thankfully, the bell eventually decided to cooperate, and I gave it a few extra rings for good measure.'

Ross has moved to Sherston with his wife, Georgiana, a GP, and their two children, Henry, four, and Clara, two. Henry has just started at Sherston Primary School.

'We've had such a warm welcome since arriving in Sherston, and we're really delighted to be here. The children have settled in well, although Henry was initially rather puzzled when he saw what looked like the Rattlebone Inn logo on his new school uniform. He had somehow got it into his head that the school and the pub were one and the same!

'This is a new chapter for us, and I'm really looking forward to getting to know everyone. I'd love to welcome you to Holy Cross, whether for a service, the café or one of the many other things happening here. I look forward to getting to know you.'

A date for your diary

The Family Christmas Bazaar will be on Saturday 28 November – a little bit earlier than usual. This is one of the big fundraising events of the year for our village church. Starting at 12.00noon, the usual attractions will be there, as well as some new features for families and children. We start the event with lunches: the ever-popular bacon and cheese rolls, as well as home-made soup and other light refreshments. There will also be home-made cakes for sale, Christmas gifts, the first crop of Sherston's amazing Brussels sprouts, plus the tombola and a big Christmas raffle with a chance to win a Christmas hamper. We'll have mulled wine on sale too – to get you into the Christmas spirit!

If you are able to donate cakes, raffle prizes or produce, such as home-made jams or chutneys, please bring them along to the village hall on Saturday 28 November from 10.00am. We would love your support to help us to raise much-needed funds to repair our church ceiling.

Advent Sunday

Advent Sunday this year is the following day - Sunday 29 November - when there will be a candlelit service at 6.00pm. The Advent House trail around the village is a beautiful reminder of our preparations to celebrate the arrival of Christ on Christmas Day. Our nativity crib by the church porch will be ready on Christmas Eve, as the final stop of the Advent House Trail.

Churchyard Working Group

A huge thank you to the many people who came on the first Saturday in October to help clear a very overgrown area of the churchyard. Everyone worked hard to clear the mass of brambles and other vegetation, and the results were spectacular: we uncovered 10 gravestones that had previously been hidden. Some of the gravestones that have been revealed are especially interesting.

The next two churchyard working parties will be on Saturday 7 November and Saturday 5 December. All volunteers welcome, even if you are only available for a short time. Arrival from 9.30am onwards and there is always a coffee break mid-morning in church to keep you warm on the coldest of days.

Sherston School News

From hedgerow to jar: Sherston's crabapple challenge

Willow Class recently swapped the classroom for the countryside as they headed out on a crabapple-picking adventure. The children enjoyed a wonderful afternoon collecting this often overlooked fruit and were delighted to contribute over 100kg of crabapples to this year's community collection.

This annual project, run in partnership with Tracklements, is a fantastic example of how a simple local activity can make a real difference. Every September, spare wild crabapples collected by the community are transformed into Tracklements delicious English Crabapple Jelly. For every kilogram donated, Tracklements gives money directly to Sherston Primary School, with further funds raised from the sale of every jar sold nationwide.

The children loved exploring the hedgerows, learning about local wildlife and discovering how natural resources can be used sustainably. It was a brilliant opportunity to combine outdoor learning, teamwork and community spirit.

We would like to say a special thank you to Judith Parkyn, who kindly joined us during the afternoon and captured some wonderful photographs of the children in action.

A huge thank you must also go to the many families who have been collecting crabapples in their own time and dropping them off throughout the month. Every bag, bucket and basket helps to raise valuable funds for the school. Your support makes a genuine difference and is another example of our community coming together to support local children.

Celebrating Apple Day and creative young designers

One of the highlights of the Sherston calendar is Apple Day, and once again we are incredibly grateful to Sustainable Sherston and the Friends of Sherston School for organising such a fantastic community event.

Sherston Primary School is proud to play an important role in the celebrations each year. Children were invited to design the labels for this year's Sherston Apple Juice, pressed from apples donated by local residents and sold to raise funds for both the school and Sustainable Sherston. We are delighted to congratulate Thea and Ralph, whose winning designs appear on this year's bottles. Their creativity, imagination and artistic flair impressed the judges and perfectly captured the spirit of the event.

Projects such as this show children that their learning has a purpose beyond the classroom. Through art and design, they can contribute to a real product enjoyed across the village and beyond, while also helping to raise money for their school.

We would like to thank everyone involved in making Apple Day such a success. If you haven't yet bought any Sherston Apple Juice this year, please do consider ordering some from Eleanor Lines on 07949 292741.

Meet the staff

Name: Helen Thomas
Role in school: EYFS 1:1 Teaching Assistant (TA), Art and Drama Club leader and LAMDA teacher
How long you've been at the school: I started a KS2 Drama Club three years ago, followed by KS1 Art Club and LAMDA classes the following year, and then began as a 1:1 TA in September 2025.
Your school-day 'superpower': Reading picture books – a well-timed story can cure most ills!

Three words that describe you: smiley, caring, creative
Favourite playground game/childhood hobby: Dressing up, making up stories and acting them out.
Secret talent: I discovered last year that I can still do a headstand, which I'm rather chuffed about.
Tea/coffee/drink/biscuit of choice: Strong, black coffee in the morning; builder's tea in the afternoon.

Quick-fire challenge

Cats or dogs? Cats – we have two, Toffee who's very lazy, and Mabel, who likes to chase leaves.
Reading or drawing? Reading. I love getting immersed in the world of a good novel. I always have a book by the bed (and not enough bookshelves at home)!
Mountains or beach? This is a hard one, but I think mountains. Every year, on my birthday we climb the Skirrid near Abergavenny. The 360 views are just breathtaking.
Board games or video games? Definitely board games – I love anything that brings our family together and board games usually descend into hilarity at some point!
A vegetable you would ban forever: Fennel – I really don't like licorice!
Favourite treat after a long day: Sitting down, with a cup of tea, a chocolate biscuit or if I'm lucky cake made by one of my daughters and a quick game of Wordle.
A place you dream of visiting: New Zealand or the Canadian Rockies – bigger mountains, larger lakes, and views that stretch for miles.
Best place you've ever been: Home, with my family.

Spotlight Story

I've always loved working with young children. I find their curiosity, awe, delight and lively energy is infectious. I trained as a primary school teacher and worked for several years before pursuing my other passion, drama. Now I've come full circle.
Working as a 1:1 TA is such a special role as it gives you that rare commodity, time, with one child. Seeing them grow day by day in confidence and understanding is such a privilege.
Running art and drama clubs and teaching LAMDA lessons enables me to share my love of art and drama. Giving children the opportunity to use their imaginations and explore their creativity is so rewarding. Art club is usually a really chilled hour and drama club full of energy, noise and hilarity!
Whichever role I'm in, I love the fact that no two days are the same and being with children always keeps me on my toes (and hopefully young!).

My school day in three moments

A moment that makes me smile: Whenever a child discovers they can do something for the first time.
A moment that challenges me: Juggling! There are often three children needing attention at the same time in Reception.
A moment I treasure: All the smiles and laughter.

SHERSTON GARDENING CLUB

Cuttings

We had a packed house of members and guests at our October meeting for well-known speaker, Jane Moore, talking about late summer colour in the garden. After months of little or no rain, it was refreshing to be reminded that plants are resilient, but making good choices for changing weather conditions means prolonging vibrant interest for months.

On Tuesday 3 November, we have another timely, seasonal topic on offer. Duncan Coombs is a lecturer, RHS Garden Advisor and keen plant hunter, particularly in China. Duncan will be discussing "Pruning Shrubs and Aftercare", a subject we are asked about frequently. Bring your questions for answers from an expert!

Duncan Coombs

Clippings

Club meetings take place on the first Tuesday of each month (except August) at the British School Room, Cliff Road, 7.00pm for a 7.30pm start. Plant ID, plant sales, raffle, questions (and hopefully answers) and friendly chat over homemade refreshments. New club members are always welcome. The annual fee is £20 single, £35 joint, U18's free. We communicate with members via a monthly newsletter, on the sherston.org.uk website and our SGC Facebook page. Our secretary can be contacted on sherstongardeningclub@gmail.com

Community

As the clocks change, so too do the plants in the village troughs. We hope you like the autumnal colours which will be perked up in a few months wuth the emergence of spring bulbs, including mixed narcissi and tulips. There was also a hard-working morning last month when we planted over 300 narcissi bulbs under the six trees at the edge of the Recreation Ground.

Work is also nearing completion on our colourful new website which will be active in the next week or two. You'll find useful information about the club, our programme of talks, seasonal trips and all things horticultural.

Calendar

At our Tuesday 1 December meeting, we are pleased to welcome the two Head Gardeners at the Badminton Estate. Their talk will be accompanied by festive wine and nibbles.

National Recognition for The Rattlebone

The Rattlebone has been named Punch Pubs & Co 'Pub of the Year' at the Great British Pub Awards 2026.

Run by Matthew and Charlie since November 2024, The Rattlebone combines an AA Rosette kitchen with the everyday life of a village local: meals with family and friends, cask ales at the bar, community gatherings and fundraising.

Matthew said: 'Charlie and I are incredibly proud of this award. We want to thank every member of the team, past and present, who has helped us get here, and everyone in Sherston who has supported us. There is a lot of hard work behind every service, and this is a lovely moment to share with the people who make the pub what it is.

'We want people to leave having eaten well and felt properly welcome, whether they have travelled for lunch or popped in for a pint. The award gives us a chance to introduce The Rattlebone to more people, and we will keep working on the things that bring our guests back.'

Beavers, Cubs and Scouts have a Blast at Space Camp!

At the beginning of October, 1st Sherston Beavers, Cubs and Scouts 'camped' in the Scout Hut and the North Building for a weekend of space-themed fun! Friday night got off to a great start, with good weather and clear skies for a night hike spotting constellations.

After breakfast, Saturday began with a series of space-themed challenges and crafts - including 'escape the crater' (climbing wall), and making flying saucers, edible meteorites and constellation boxes. The afternoon was all about astronaut training, and involved a huge amount of teamwork - testing astronaut food, building a satellite, completing a fitness test, cracking a code and launching water rockets. Meanwhile, the Young Leaders challenged themselves to cook meteorites with space sauce (meatballs and spaghetti) for all - over 50 people! After a busy and active day, it was time to settle down for a film night with galaxy popcorn and flying saucers.

On Sunday morning, Beavers, Cubs and Scouts packed up their beds and enjoyed a breakfast of waffles, before heading home. Well done to Annabel, Rosa and Dougie for being best Beaver, Cub and Scout, respectively, over the weekend.

Thank you to Sean Richards for providing the location for a fire for a mid-hike fuel stop (hot dogs and s'mores, of course!), to the Parish Council for use of the North Building, to Dan Kent for sharing his space expertise and knowledge, to Sherston Congregational Church for the Lego loan and to Sherston Primary School for use of the school car park for the climbing wall.

Sherston Guides experience Big Gig, a pop concert at Wembley Arena!

A group of our Guides were amongst 20,000 girls who filled Wembley Arena recently for Big Gig, an evening of live music organised by Girlguiding. It was an extraordinary experience to be with so many Guides, Rangers, Young Leaders and Leaders. The event was hosted by Radio 1 DJ, Charlie Hedges, and the television and radio presenter Angellica Bell.

Evie: I liked seeing famous bands like JLS and the Wanted 2.0

Rosie: It was very atmospheric, thousands of girls and leaders renewed their promise together.

Charlie: It was inspirational, what an incredible community Girlguiding is. When The Wanted 2.0 had technical problems with their track the girls sang the words for them.

Lucy: I really enjoyed Scouting for Girls.

Maisie: I didn't know how many Girlguiding groups there were!

Edie: There were so many girls - it was amazing!

City of the White Walls document researched by Cilla Liddington

Contemporary Memories of the Coming of the North Folk in the Sixth Century
BY THE VERY Rev. H. D. M. SPENCE, DEAN OF GLOUCESTER. SECOND PAPER.

In the heart of the ancient British poem ascribed to the bard Llywarch Hen are the following striking stanzas, commemorative of the "White City". The fate of this "place of arms," from the position which it holds in the poem, evidently was closely bound up with the crushing British disaster at Deorham (A.D. 577), in which battle the hero Cyndylan fell.

The "White City" has been by some writers of eminence identified with Uriconium, the city of Cyndylan, near the modern Shrewsbury; but Uriconium* only fell some six or seven years after the battle of Deorham, with which battle it has absolutely no connection; there is besides nothing that we know of belonging to the great Roman-British city of Shropshire, which can fairly be associated with the five times repeated title "White."

"The White, Town in the bosom of the wood, †
There has ever been of its lusty hood,
On the surface of the grass, the blood!

"The White Town in the countryside,
Its lustyhood, its gray thoughtfulness,
The blood under the feet of its warriors !

"The White Town in the valley!
Joyful its troop with the common spoil
Of battle, its people are they not gone?

"The White Town between Tren and Troywyd ! ††
More common was the broken shield
Coming from battle, than the evening ox.

"The White Town between Tren and Traval ! ††
More common was the blood
On the surface of the grass, than the ploughed fallow."

* This supposed identification is helped neither by local tradition nor by the etymology of the name. The pleas urged by Dr. Guest for the identification would, indeed, be equally applicable in the case of many, if not, indeed, of most of the more important Roman British towns.
† The translation is Dr. Guest's, first printed in Archaeological Journal, "Conquest of Severn Valley," vol. xix., and has been since adopted by Mr. Skene, in his four "Ancient Books of Wales," and later by Mr. Stepford Brooke.
† † These "geographical references" are useless to us, as Tren, in the same poem, is used as the name of a river and a town : there were probably several streams so called in the Seven Valley. The river Trent doubtless derives its name from the same root-Tren signifies rapid.

About three miles from the old Wiltshire town of Sherston Magna, some ten miles from the battle-field of Deorham, the Foss (Roman) Road, leading from Bath to Lincoln crosses the Avon by a bridge, rebuilt, no doubt, many times since the days of the Caesars, but always recast on the old Roman pattern, without mortar or cement, to allow the river-water at flood time to flow unhindered through the interstices of the stones. A few yards above the little bridge, the old Roman stones can still be seen through the clear waters of the shallow Avon, intended for the passing of the Roman cavalry or the pack-horses through the river, making their way along the Foss Road. Close to the ford and the bridge are the earthworks of the military station - a pile of stones, with bits of pottery lying about, still marks the site of the guard-house or inn. During the seventeen centuries which have elapsed since the Italian strangers paved the Avon ford and built the bridge, this spot has kept the original name of a very ancient city in the neighbourhood - "White Walls." *

Just three miles from the ford and the bridge, the old Wiltshire village-town, Sherston Magna, picturesquely built upon the sides of a steep hill sloping down to the Avon, still marks the site of a very old city, † once evidently strongly fortified. Considerable and well-marked earthworks, as well as local tradition, tell us there was once a British city here, before the Roman occupation. The Romans probably cared less for it than the old British people, who first chose the site, and its distance from the military road may account for our hearing nothing of the town during the three centuries of Roman rule in Britain; only the ford and bridge station of the Foss, across the Avon kept the old name, "White Walls." After the departure of the legions in A.D. 409, the City of the White Walls - "the White Town"- doubtless became of greater importance, † † so it was probably refortified as a military outpost of the Severn and Avon districts. The wood in the "bosom" of which we are told that it was situated, must have been the present Selkwood, which then naturally exceeded its present boundaries.

* It is still so marked on the Ordnance Maps of Wiltshire.
† See an interesting paper on this identification of Sherston Magna with the "White Town" of Llywarch Hen, in the "Proceedings of the Cotteswold Field Club," p. 191 of the vol. for 1874-5.
† † For, after the Romans had left, the British provincials of the Severn Vale cared little for places like distant Lindum (Lincoln). The great military roads had comparatively small interest, for the British folk, who were, alas for themselves! only interested in their own immediate neighbourhood. This want of solidarity in the island was one of the principal causes which led to its subjugation by the Northmen.

Many coins and other remains have been found here, and the remaining traces of fortifications tell their own story."*

The name given by Llywarch Hen to the city corresponds in a remarkable way with "Sceorstane," the old Saxon name of the Wiltshire town of Sherstone. Scir, or Scyr, means bright, shining, white (clarus, nitidus, albus). "Sceorstane" then would signify the bright, or shining, or white stone, evidently the exact Saxon equivalent for the old British name, "Dref Wenn, the White City (or Town)." †

There is a pathetic interest attached to the gray-white old Wiltshire village-town, mirrored in the clear and shining Avon water, for the student as he wanders over the quiet scene with the old bardic poem on the dead hero-king in his hand. The long-buried, almost-forgotten story of the blood-stained "making of England" comes up before him.

* See "Cotteswold Field Club Transactions," vol. for 1814-5, p. 198.

World War One Veteran William (Bill) James Turner

Studio photo of Bill on enlistment, a 19-year-old boy with hope

Bill, a 21-year-old man who has seen too much

My Uncle Bill was born in 1895 in Chipping Sodbury in a terraced house now absorbed into the Town Hall. Bill was big brother to my dad Harold, who was born in 1904.

When World War One broke out in August 1914 it was expected to be over by Christmas. It was also expected to be the 'War to end all wars'!

Bill volunteered and signed up to the 5th Battalion Gloucestershire Regiment (Territorial Force) as a Private; number 2919TF. In 1915, the 5th Battalion was rapidly amalgamated into the 4th Battalion - probably due to high casualty rates suffered on the front line.

The 4th Battalion fought in the First Battle of the Somme in 1915. Prior to their first assault, the Germans launched a gas attack against the British lines. Bill was gassed in this attack and was transferred to the field hospital located some way behind the Allied lines. Hospital patients were issued with blue jackets to identify themselves and so as not to be mistaken for shirkers or deserters. (Deserters, if caught, were regularly executed by firing squad, as a deterrent to others.)

Bill, undoubtedly unfit for frontline duty, was transferred to the Battalion Signal Corps. The role was still potentially hazardous. Standing up behind your own lines did not mean you were not at risk from enemy artillery bombardment. Bill ended his service in 1918 in Italy, fighting the Austrian/Hungarian armies.

On returning home, Bill suffered from weakened lungs and shell shock (now known as PTSD, Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder). My grandfather endeavoured to help his son as best he could by setting him up in a new grocery shop on Chipping Sodbury High Street. Bill met and married a young woman called Bessy West.

This is where the story has a sad twist. Bessy hoped to have children and raise a family but Bill had failed to tell her before they married that he was not prepared to bring any children into a world that could produce the horrors that he and so many others had lived through.

Bill's own therapy for shell shock involved breeding prize-winning canaries in an aviary in his back garden. His birds won many prizes for best in show. I know this because I inherited the small glass case containing the medals.

How did Sherston get involved with Operation Christmas Child?

Following the public shooting of Romanian dictator Ceaușescu on Christmas Day 1989, many orphanages were discovered in Romania, full of deprived babies and toddlers. A local businessman in Wrexham, Dave Cooke, and his wife, Jill, felt moved to do something in response to the plight of these orphans. The couple put out a local radio appeal for essential items, including clothing, bedding and medical supplies, and the local community responded, filling seven lorries for Romania! Dave's sister Jan, came up with the concept of the shoebox gift as a form of easily transportable 'Christmas stocking' to give hope to children in the toughest of circumstances. Shoeboxes of gifts filled another lorry, and Operation Christmas Child (OCC) was born!

Evangelist Mick Hunt tagged a lorry full of Bibles on the end of the convoy and took the first, grainy, video of the trip (videos had only just been invented back then).

At the time, we had a small Christian teenage youth group in Sherston and Luckington and, a few months after the trip, Mick came to a session and showed his video. Our 13-year-old daughter was at the youth group, and came back suggesting that we do boxes from Wiltshire too. Consequently, we borrowed the video, made copies and sent it to local schools. This led to a team of 12 in Sherston, plus 70 volunteers annually, meeting to check, pack, and dispatch shoeboxes for around 15 years, plus general support over 30 years.

We knew many of these children would die young so made a stamp which said, in Romanian, 'Father God loves you!' and stamped it on each shoebox lid. That seemed to be the most important thing for them to know - and every box was prayed for.

Never did I dream that Billy Graham's son Franklin would take over OCC during the next 30 years and turn the acorn we helped nurture in Sherston in the 90s into the gigantic evangelistic oak it has now become in 2026! (See their latest videos.)

Since 1996, when Samaritan's Purse took over OCC, more than 209 million children in more than 170 countries and territories have received a shoebox. The main miracle is that, because each box has been prayed for by the donors, the checkers, the packers, and the deliverers, God's love spills out into the young lives of the receivers.

It was the thrill of our lives last December, for Roger and I to be taken to the massive new Samaritan's Purse Depot in Coventry. It is wonderful that OCC has now turned into a huge global Sunday School for children in all these countries, with volunteers able to give them biblical training if they want it.

If you want to get involved this year, empty boxes are available from the Co-op in Sherston and then need to be dropped off at Persephone Violet on the High Street in Malmesbury from Monday 9 to Friday 13 November.

North Wiltshire Villages Flower Club

Autumn is a very busy time of year for the Flower Club. It began with our AGM in September which incorporated an excellent and very enthusiastic talk by Jennifer Susan from Halliesphere. We also launched our new programme for 2027 which includes several floral art demonstrations, workshops for all experience levels, talks, outings and our Emerald Anniversary celebration. More details can be found on our website (https://northwiltshirevillagesflowerclub.co.uk/). For October, there was a last-minute change of plan, so we held a workshop making Pave designs (dense, flat, shallow arrangements best viewed from above), which was a new skill for many.

Our main event of the year is an open meeting with Nick Grounds, a National Demonstrator, at Malmesbury Town Hall on Wednesday 18 November at 7.30pm. Nick is also a professional horticultural auctioneer, known for his theatrical, humorous and engaging flower-arranging events. All are welcome to what should be an excellent evening. Tickets are now on sale (£20 for members, £25 for visitors) and include delicious canapes and a glass of bubbly. For more information, or to purchase tickets, email nwvflowerclub@gmail.com, call 07817 242888, or visit our website (as above).

Then on Saturday 28 November, we are holding a Christmas Wreath Making Workshop at the Riverside Community Centre in Malmesbury from 2.00pm to 4.30pm. This will be open to anyone who would like to learn a new skill, especially non-members, for a cost of £40 including tea and mince pies. If you'd like more information or to book, please check our website or our Facebook page – North Wiltshire Villages Flower Club. Places are limited so book soon!

Our final event of 2026 will be a Christmas lunch at the Old Royal Ship in Luckington on Wednesday 16 December, providing an opportunity to relax and enjoy each other's company.
